

NATION READY FOR COAL STRIKE

AUTOISTS MUST KEEP LIGHTS BURNING

Autoists must have both head and tail lights lighted after dusk, whether their machines are traveling along a highway or parked on the street or in a well lighted lot.

So said Judge Enright in police court today in disposing of the much discussed question as to whether the automobile laws require machines on brilliantly lighted streets to have both front and rear lights lighted while in motion or parked, which question has been the cause for considerable argument in police circles recently. His Honor also stated that the law defines a man who leaves his car and goes into an adjacent store or other place as still the operator of the machine, making him liable to the penalties prescribed by law if his car is not properly lighted in his absence.

Judge Enright made this statement in disposing of the cases of John S. Rhabias and Aristides Bonomoulos, charged with violations of the headlight regulations. Rhabias was fined $5 and Bonomoulos $10.

Another autoist present on the same charge paid a fine of $20. He was Joseph P. Campbell, and according to the evidence had been driving his machine with only one headlight on near the scene of the recent auto collision on the Lowell boulevard.

For failing to stop his machine on signal by a police officer, Harry Ganah of Arlington paid a fine of $25. Officer Maloney told the court that on the evening of Oct. 22 defendant had passed by him near Tower's corner at an excessive rate of speed and had failed to stop when signalled. Ganah's defense was that he had not seen the motion of the policeman.

Cold Storage Eggs

Three men and a woman, local provision dealers, pleaded guilty to the unlawful exposure for sale of cold storage eggs and paid fines of $10 each. They were John J. Kelleher, Joseph Carpenito, Kenneth D. McKennan and Mary Mills. Morris E. Perlman, another local storekeeper, found guilty of the sale of eggs unfit for food, also paid a $10 fine. Frank Pinto, charged with unlawful exposure of cold storage eggs, failed to appear to answer to the charge.

Assault and Battery

Antonio Goulet, found guilty of assault and battery on his wife, paid a fine of $10 and was ordered to furnish bonds of $300 to keep the peace.

LOWELL YOUNG MEN GET K. OF C. SCHOLARSHIPS

Three Lowell young men have been honored by the Knights of Columbus with scholarships which entitle them to tuition, board and books at leading colleges of the state. It was announced today. The young men are Vincent McCarthy of 226 Rogers street, John C. Sargent of 122 Cohurn street and William C. Ready of 10 Bertha street.

The scholarships are part of the reconstruction work being undertaken by the Knights of Columbus all over the country. They are confined to men who served in the world war in the army, navy or marine corps, but any veteran who was able to pass the necessary examination was eligible for one of the honors, no matter what his race or creed.

A total of 55 scholarships were distributed in Massachusetts and three of them have come to Lowell. Messrs. Ready and Sargent are students at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and McCarthy is at Holy Cross college. They all saw service in the world war.

MAZDA CLUB DANCE

One of the happiest dancing parties of the present season was given in the assembly hall of the Highland club last evening by the Mazda club, a group of young people connected with the Lowell Electric Light Corp. Autumn foliage and well arranged Halloween features formed an attractive decorative scheme and the hall was well filled with dancers. Campbell's Banjo orchestra played for the dancing, which was continuous from 8 until 12 o'clock. Punch and refreshments were served during the evening. The members of the club, who worked with equal interest to make the affair a success, were: Miss Helena Sharkey, Miss Gladys Dodge, Miss Grace Murphy, Miss Bessie Brundin, Frank Harmon, Clark P. Spellman, James Jones and John Clarke.

Bartlett of New Hampshire, stated in referring to the Boston police strike that "police men are the government. Our protection is in their hands. They cannot throw it down and by leaving their posts they defied the government."

Federal Agencies, Convinced Strike Cannot Be Prevented, Move Swiftly To Meet Situation—Department of Justice Ready To Jail Law Violators—Troops To Protect Public and Miners Who Wish To Work

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Federal government agencies moved swiftly today to meet the situation which will result from the strike of half a million bituminous coal miners Saturday.

Developments included: Orders to railroads to confiscate all coal in transit, if necessary, to build up a reserve for operation of the roads.

Re-establishment of the priorities list of the fuel administration so that the railroads, public service utilities and essential industries will have first call on whatever coal is mined and on that in storage.

Preparation of an executive order establishing maximum prices for coal and completion of plans by the department of justice to punish those guilty of profiteering and hoarding.

Announcement by Secretary Lane that the government would not hesitate to curtail consumption of coal in industries 50 per cent so that essential industries might be kept in operation.

General discussion of the situation by President Wilson's cabinet.

teacher will be present and special cars will be attached to early morning trains to accommodate them.

Local teachers have a peculiar interest in this year's meeting, inasmuch as the salary question is to be treated in several ways. Also, Henry H. Harris, head master of the Varnum school, is chairman of the 10:15 o'clock meeting in the elementary school section, at which time Frederic Houston Kent of Boston, Y.M.C.A. educational director for England, will deliver an address on "The Real British Attitude Towards America."

The meeting is divided into two sections. Elementary school teachers will attend sessions in Tremont Temple, while high school teachers will spend the day in the hearing room in the east wing of the state house. High school teachers anticipate hearing Miss Florence M. Hale of Augusta, Maine, speak on "Better Salaries for Better Teachers," while the elementary school teachers will have the pleasure of listening to Arthur W. Kallom of Somerville speak on the subject, "Teachers' Salaries in Massachusetts." Mr. Kallom is an official in the department of investigation and measurement in the Boston public schools and is conducting a nation-wide survey of the subject in teachers' salaries.

COOLIDGE SPELLBINDER LOCAL AUTHORITIES TO ENFORCE DRY LAW

Former Member of House of Representatives Talks at Saco-Lowell Shops

William M. Robinson of Boston, a former member of the house of representatives, addressed a gathering of 500 employees of the Saco-Lowell shops in front of the plant in Dutton street this noon, in the interest of the candidacy of Governor Coolidge.

Mr. Robinson divided his address almost evenly between the issue of the Boston police strike and the fact that Richard H. Long, democratic candidate for governor, is promising extensive bonuses to the soldiers and sailors of the state although it is alleged that he failed to give bonuses to the employees of his own shoe factory during the war.

"They talk about the hardships of the Boston policemen," said Mr. Robinson. "Let me tell you something. The shipworkers in this state get on an average, after their losses from bad weather, sickness, etc., are deducted, $1100 a year. I am told that carpenters in this state average only $900 a year. But the Boston policemen get $1600 a year and have, besides, the advantages of a two weeks' vacation every year and a pension when they retire.

"This issue is to decide whether these fellows are going to run the commonwealth of Massachusetts or somebody else is going to run it. Mr. Long says he'll put these men on earth again if he's elected. He'll have very little to do with it if he is elected. The matter of taking these men back lies wholly in the hands of the police commissioner. And the police commissioner is appointed by the governor only subject to the approval and confirmation of the governor's council. If Mr. Long should try to remove Commissioner Curtis he would have to have the confirmation of the council. And do you think that he will be able to get one member of that council to approve such a course?

"Do you know that Mr. Long has been getting girls to work for him on the promise that he would pay them bonuses and then when the time came for the payment of these bonuses there was absolutely nothing doing? I have been told by young women who have been told by young women who live in towns near Framingham, where his shoe factory is located, that he tried to get many girls to work in his factory on such a promise. But he never came through.

"But now he's going about the state holding for a bonus for service men. That's all right because the money won't come out of his jeans, but when it was a question of it coming out of his own pockets to pay what he had promised there was 'nothing doing'."

In closing, Mr. Robinson appealed for support for Gov. Coolidge at the polls Tuesday so that the principles which he stood for might be approved.

Six Killed, 120 Injured in Wreck

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 30.—Six dead and about 120 persons injured, some seriously, was the known casualty list today, as a result of the wreck of the Southern Pacific's "San Joaquin Valley Special" late yesterday. The tangled mass of wreckage near Afton, a few miles from here, was expected to reveal additional bodies. Railroad officials said the wreck was caused by the engineer attempting to make too much speed on a 10 degree curve.

The engineer, fireman and four passengers comprise the known dead.

Strikers Ordered Back to Work

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, Oct. 30.—The national strike committee at Pittsburgh has endorsed the stand taken by the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers, that contracts with steel plants made before the strike shall be held inviolate and all Amalgamated men under such contracts have been ordered to return to work; it was announced today by D. J. Davis, vice president of the Amalgamated, who is here to see that the orders are carried out.

Striking Clerks Granted Demands

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Demands of 1000 retail grocery clerks, who struck Tuesday for increased wages and shorter hours, have been granted and the men will return to work tomorrow, union officials announced today. The clerks asked for a nine hour day and $30 a week.

TEACHERS' PAY

vernor To Support Boston's Mayor and Officials of Other Cities

BOSTON, Oct. 28.—Gov. Coolidge has announced his intention to co-operate with Mayor Peters and the Boston School committee, as well as with the executives and school boards of other cities who may desire, in asking the 1919 legislature at its special session next month to provide for increasing the salaries of public school teachers.

In a communication to Mayor Peters the governor yesterday said:

"It will be with a good deal of satisfaction that I co-operate with you and any other cities of Massachusetts for the purpose of increasing the pay of those engaged in the teaching of the youth of our commonwealth. It has become notorious that the pay for the most important function is much less than that which prevails in commercial life and business activities.

"Roger Ascham, the teacher to Queen Elizabeth, about 1565, in discussing the question, wrote, 'And it is pity that commonly more care is had, yea, that among very wise men, to find rather a cunning man for their school than a cunning man for their children'.

"It is significant that the number of teachers who are in training in our normal schools have decreased in the last 12 or 15 years from 3000 to 2000, while the number of students in colleges and technical schools have increased. The people of the commonwealth cannot support the government unless the government supports them.

"Fortunately for us, the sterling character of teachers of all kinds has kept them at their task even though they have failed to show them due appreciation and up to the present time public has suffered little.

"But unless a change is made and a new policy adopted the cause of education will break down. It will either become a trade for those little fitted to it, or be abandoned altogether, instead of remaining the noblest profession which it has been and ought to be.

"There are some things that are elemental. In the 16th century the people were little heard of the sovereign had wisdom that the sovereign. But in the 20th century people are sovereign. What they determine every question of civilization. Unless they are well trained, all informed and well instructed, no proper value is put on knowledge and wisdom, the value of all material things will be lost. There is no pain too great, no cost too high, to prevent or diminish the duty imposed by the constitution of the commonwealth that wisdom and knowledge, as well as virtue, be generally diffused among the body of the people.

RICHEST MAN IN THE WORLD WHICH WOULD YOU BE? BEST LIKED MOVIE STAR

DANCING PARTY AT ASSOCIATE HALL

An enjoyable dancing party was held by St. Anthony's church choir at Associate hall last evening and the large crowd that attended found plenty of enjoyment in the evening's program. Previous to the dancing, members of the choir appeared in a delightful musical program, accompanied by Miss Marie J. C. O'Donnell, organist of the church. Markham's orchestra furnished music.

Bishop da Silva, assisted by J. S. Perry, had general charge of the affair and the officers directly in charge were: General manager, Walter Mack; secretary, Charles Pantano; treasurer, Charles O'Donnell; floor director, Joseph Pyne; assistant, Frederick Pyne; aids, John Mahoney, George Cliff, Geo. Pyne, George McGurn, Thomas Fineral, Robert McQuade, George Kirrane, A. Breen, Henry Mahoney, Henry Sheehan, Leslie E. Donnelly; reception committee, Patrick J. Mahoney, chairman; John O'Loughlin, Joseph Gorman, Francis Gorman, Chester Gordon, William Trask, Cleon O'Neil, William D. Howe; refreshment table, Mrs. Shea, matron, and aids, Mrs. C. M. Ray, Mrs. J. H. Donnelly, Mrs. M. Mooney, Miss Marie J. C. COSGROVE ON FAIR PRICE COMMITTEE

Daniel J. Cosgrove was chosen a member of the fair price committee for Lowell to represent retail provision dealers at a special meeting of the Grocers and Butchers' association, held last evening. The choice was made by the association at the request of Mayor Perry D. Thompson. Mr. Cosgrove will be one of five members to serve on this committee.

Members of the organization devoted the greater part of their meeting last evening to a discussion of the sugar situation. Warren P. Riordan, sealer of weights and measures, was present and gave an interesting survey of the local situation as it stands at the present time. Plans for co-operation were mapped out so that the shortage or unequal distribution may be relieved to some extent.

Joseph Convery talked on the double platoon system for the fire department and he was asked a number of questions concerning the working of the proposed system in Lowell.

Secretary G. F. Maguire read a number of communications and following the business meeting a social hour and smoke talk were enjoyed.

MEDICAL SOCIETY HOLDS MEETING

The Middlesex North District Medical society held its quarterly meeting yesterday afternoon at the state hospital in Tewksbury and followed a business session with a tour of some of the infirmary wards and an entertainment. The business session was in charge of Dr. Nichols, president of the society.

At the close merit certificates were presented to 30 members of the society who had served during the war, the awards being made in behalf of the organization by Dr. William P. Lawler. An excellent luncheon was enjoyed, after which the following program was given in the chapel:

Part 1, vaudeville work, Alfonso Kurto, physical instructor at hospital, assisted by Clarence Leonard and Aldo Aronoff.

Part 2, Emilio Rovelli, violin, assisted by Mrs. Koehle at the piano; a—Concerto No. 9, De Berlioz; b—Rhapsody, Nevin, Kreisler arrangement.

Part 3, state ward boys in gymnasium work: —Callisthenic drill and marching; 2—Music; 3—Pyramid building.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Below is what the press agents of the different theatres say of the current attractions and of others to come:

THE STRAND

Madge Kennedy, one of Lowell's most popular screen idols, appearing in the latest Goldwyn film offering, "Through the Wrong Door," will be shown for the first time today at The Strand. John Bowers is again her leading man and appears in the role of the young prospector whom her father has swindled. When the young man moves to New York he finds that he has lost his mine. Gloom had taken a grip on him. He discharges his help and finds himself in a quandary as to whether to go west and discover a new mine or look up the swindler and beat him up. The door of his apartment opens suddenly and in drops a young woman. In her hurry she has gone "through the wrong door." These are the complications that the young prospector faces. What he does thereafter, and just how he does it to the best advantage, not alone to himself but the girl, is better told by the picture. See it and enjoy it to the full.

A powerful story is promised in the new William Fox production, "Sacred Silence," in which William Russell is starred. The far-reaching effect of a woman's sin constitutes the basic idea. Critical reviewers indicate one of the strongest stories ever shown on the screen, for the daring revelations of life at an army post during peace times are spectacular to a degree. The unscrupulous woman whose vanity seeks to make every man her victim is responsible for the tense situation which opens the story and which compels a valiant young captain, with whose destiny the story is chiefly concerned, to desert from the army and become a derelict in the great city. OPERA HOUSE

All performances of the melodramatic hit of the season, "A Woman at Bay," at the Opera House, have given unusual satisfaction to the patrons, particularly the interpretation of the principal roles by Miss Marguerite Fields and John Meehan, the former as "Nancy," the woman at bay, and the latter as the broad-minded and forgiving husband, who sees good in every one and looks at things generally in the right light. The single settings, under the supervision of J. Francis Kirk, is praiseworthy, while the support accorded the principals by the remainder of the engaging cast, is quite in keeping with their superior efforts of the past. If you haven't seen it then arrange to go and be sure and order your tickets well in advance.

Next week "Here Comes the Bride," a rollicking, humor-making, laugh-producing comedy, will be produced for the first time in this city. You will know how well the Players handle comedy. Your anticipations will be fully realized after seeing this.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE: Laughter that just won't end greets the comedy features of the bill at the B. F. Keith theatre, this week. "5000 a Year," the pleasant comedy played by Robert Hyman, Virginia Mann, etc., is one of the laugh-causing features, and Kallam and O'Dare offer a second one that hasn't been beaten during the entire season, thus far. It is a scream. Eddie Barto and Florence Clark in "Columbia and Victor," also have a neat little bit that ends up with first class dancing. A quartet of saxophones enliven matters much, and the foot juggling of the Werden Bros. is decidedly good. Other acts are the Althoff Sisters and Marilyn & Florence.

Health Column Conducted by
United States Public
Health Service

The following article on temperance and typhoid is prepared under the direction of Rupert Blue, surgeon general, United States public health service:

What profiteth a man that he gain the whole world, yet lose his health? Naturalists say that long ago the prehistoric waters were infested with a species of enormous shark which finally became extinct by reason of the workings of its voracious appetite. Thus nature eliminates the over-fed.

The desire for ease of life and plentiful diet is universal and is the great stimulus of man and animals alike. When man becomes greedy and takes more ease and food and drink than his share, nature discards him.

In the race for power and place, for ease of circumstance and relief from the stimulus of hunger, the modern man is apt to forget that unless he is careful of his body he will soon be made to suffer for the infraction of nature's inexorable physical law. With the loss in body tone comes an equal loss in mental acuity, and the brain, which for a time was able to operate despite the complaints of an overfed, under-exercised, self-poisoned body, stops working.

Statisticians assure us that the mortality rate of persons over 45 years of age is not only not decreasing but apparently even slightly increasing. The strenuous life of today is not alone responsible for this. Lack of health-giving exercise, superfluity of diet, lack of restoring sleep, the high pressure of the race for power, wealth and position, plus physical neglect—these bring early decay. The goal is reached—wealth is attained—honor, position and power are just being grasped when the apple of achievement turns to the ashes of dissolution. The brilliant mind becomes clouded, the steady hand is no longer accurate, the eye which once gazed fearlessly on the whole world is dimmed and it is not long before the final break-up occurs. All of this was entirely preventable.

Other things being equal it is the man who leads the well-balanced life who lasts the longest, whose work to the end is uniformly the best, who neither overworks, nor overplays, neither over-eats, over-drinks, nor over-sleeps, he who maintains a standard of simple, healthy diet in moderation, who offsets mental work with physical recreation, who is as honest with his own body as he is with his own business. When success comes to such a one his physical and mental condition is such that he can enjoy in peace of mind and contentment of body the fruits of his labors.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. Can typhoid be carried by milk?
A. Yes. In 1907 a case of typhoid fever occurred in a mountain house near Palo Alto, Cal. The wastes from the patient were thrown into a stream on which a dairy was located some distance below. The milk cans of the dairy were washed in the stream and a typhoid epidemic of 230 cases developed among the people who were supplied with this milk. In the spring of 1908 one milkman in Boston who was suffering with typhoid caused an epidemic of over 400 cases. In New York city a number of extensive outbreaks of typhoid fever were traced to infected milk. This was before the enforcement of pasteurization of the milk supply.

Q. Is it harmful to drink while eating?

A. A glass or two of water taken at meal time in small sips moistens the food and helps to mix the saliva with it, thus causing the starch to be more quickly digested. Water taken in larger amounts hinders digestion, especially if the food is washed down without being properly chewed. The water should not be too cold, because cold drinks chill the stomach and hinder digestion. Coffee and tea hinder the work of the saliva, and these drinks should be used sparingly by every one and should be avoided entirely by those who have trouble in digesting starchy foods.

PRICE OF COAL IS BOOSTED AGAIN

Lowell coal dealers advanced the price of all grades of coal 25 cents a ton last Monday, making the second boost within a month. The other advance was made in September, when the price was boosted 30 cents a ton. The reason for the increase is "increased expenses."

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c.

PLAN HOME WELCOME FOR THEIR HEROES

A big banquet to be held in the auditorium of the Pawtucket grammar school and the erection of a suitable memorial are two of the principal features planned by residents of Pawtucket in the big welcome home celebration they are to give their war heroes the latter part of next month.

A well attended and enthusiastic meeting to further plans for the affair was held last evening in the chapel of the Pawtucket Congregational church. The meeting directed its efforts mainly to plans for the raising of $150 to meet the expenses of the banquet and another sum for the erection of a monument. The committee in charge of the banquet includes: Chairman, Andrew Molloy, Charles Sheridan, John Blessington, Patrick O'Leary, Elijah Axon, Mrs. Edward Cunningham, Mrs. Harry P. Graves, Mrs. Harriet Powers, Mrs. Thomas Chadwick and Mrs. M. J. Reddy.

The officers who were temporarily elected at the previous meeting were chosen permanently last evening and are as follows: Cornelius P. Cronin, chairman; Rev. A. G. Lyon, secretary; and William Rigby, treasurer. Present on the platform with the officers was Rev. Patrick J. Hally, pastor of St. Columba's church. It was announced that a subscription from the Pawtucketville women for the banquet fund had been received.

Among the affairs planned by the committee to help defray the expenses of the banquet and memorial are a football game to be played next Sunday, a tag day, Nov. 8, dances, musical concerts, whist parties and a souvenir booklet.

SALISBURY GREAT CHARACTER MAN

When "The Eyes of the World," the pictorial translation of Harold Bell Wright's famous story of love and adventure, comes to this city next week, Nov. 3, patrons of the Owl Theatre, where this cinema masterpiece will be shown, will have an opportunity of seeing one of the most uniformly excellent casts ever assembled in a single production. From Monroe Salisbury and Jane Novak, who have the leading parts, down to the last important member of the cast, every player has been carefully chosen with an eye to his fitness for his role, and drilled to make the utmost of his smallest opportunity. The result is as faultless as the finished product of a machine whose every cog is in perfect working order.

In the leading male role of Conrad La Grange, Monroe Salisbury does perhaps the best acting of his long career as a stage and screen favorite. A study of his interpretation reveals such a wealth of ardency and fine acting that one finds one's self becoming more and more interested in the past history of a man who has mastered the technique of his profession. Monroe Salisbury was born in New York city—how long ago he will not say, believing it wiser to let the public wonder a little about his age than to tell them outright. His early youth was devoted to the study of art and music, in both of which branches he is gifted and proficient. His stage debut was made in 1898 in repertory with Richard Mansfield, and during the intervening years between this event and the time when he deserted the legitimate stage for motion pictures he supported such luminaries of the theatrical firmament as Mrs. Fiske, John Drew, Katharine Kidder, Nance O'Neill and many others. He followed William Farnum in "The Prince of India," under Charles Frohman, and was also seen in Klaw and Erlanger productions, and in stock at the famous old Castle Square Theatre, Boston.

His screen career began in 1913 since which time he has been affiliated with the Lasky, Fine Arts, Cines Mutual, Fox, Morosco and Bluebird companies, both as leading man for feminine screen stars and featured performer of the productions. "The Goose Girl," "The Man of the Ranch," "The Devil's Assistant," "Anthony the Absolute," "The Savage," "The Silent Lie," and "The Eyes of the World" are among the best known photoplays of a long list to his credit. His more recent productions are "The Sundown Trail," "The Sleeping Lion" and "The Man in the Moonlight," three photo-

for Pale and Weak Women.
Give a mother of large family the strength she so sorely needed.

MRS. GEO. GIRARD

I was suffering from general weakness, sore back, sore legs, headaches, fickle appetite and poor digestion. Today I am the mother of several children. The different ailments which made me suffer so much were brought on by the fact that I was compelled to start working early in life, and without any respite whatever. Today I can safely say that it was RED PILLS which gave me the strength I so sorely needed, and made me well. As soon as I feel that my health is impaired even slightly, I take RED PILLS, as I know the great good they have done for me in the past. I recommend them to all my friends, and am happy to let everyone know of their beneficial qualities.

plays in which he stars for the Universal Co. Mr. Salisbury is one of the most popular portrayals of leading character parts the screen has, and his remarkable delineation of a difficult and exacting role in "The Eyes of the World" cannot help but add new laurels to his enviable reputation.

WHIST AND ENTERTAINMENT

The Children of Mary sodality of St. Louis' parish conducted a successful whist and entertainment in the parish hall last evening. The attendance was large, the program was enjoyable and suitable prizes were awarded the winners at the card game. J. A. For little Boys and Girls

Whether you give excellent thought to the tender skin of your little ones! The sensitive and delicate pores should be thoroughly cleansed every day with an antiseptic soap. But look out for strong alkali soaps which roughen the skin and close the pores, leaving the impurities inside. Palmer's SKIN-SUCCESS Soap, a pure vegetable product, is a skin-laxative. It softens and opens the pores, soothes sensitive skin and is thoroughly antiseptic. It is wonderful for the tender and susceptible skin of the little ones. Ask your dealer—he knows!

FOCH AMONG HOME FOLKS

PARIS—Marshal Foch was given a great homecoming demonstration by his own folks down in Fribes, France, his birthplace. Everybody gathered about the front door of his home to give him greeting and here he is as he addressed them from the steps of his home, after listening to their welcome.

LOWELL WAR CAMP COMMUNITY SERVICE

The executive committee of Lowell War Camp Community Service last night approved the request of national headquarters, that it change from a war service agency into a community betterment organization on Nov. 1. The change will not involve any divergence from past policies and the same personnel which has guided the local club through the months of war will minister to its needs as it takes its place as a factor for city welfare.

Otto Hockmeyer was chosen chairman of the executive committee of the new organization and immediately will proceed on the future work. He announced last evening that the club in Dutton street will be open without charge to the public, men and women alike, and that the restaurant will be made larger at once. After Jan. 1, 1920, civilians will be called upon to pay a nominal membership fee, which will entitle them to all of the club accommodations and benefits. The employment bureau, Cornelius Cronin, manager, will be retained in its present status. The girls' division will go uninterrupted and will extend its program and widen its activities within a short time.

The dinner Mr. Hockmeyer is to give to the executive and rotating committees will take place on Nov. 17 at the club rooms.

ANNUAL HARVEST SUPPER

Long, the democratic candidate for governor, and his fellow-nominees on the state ticket took a trip through Essex county last night and addressed several thousand voters in Lynn, Salem, Peabody and Marshfield. Everywhere the audiences were large, attentive and enthusiastic.

The candidate for governor was welcomed in Lynn with an impressive outdoor demonstration. When he arrived from Boston in his automobile fireworks were being discharged on the common, bands were playing and a great crowd had gathered in front of the armory. The people followed him when he stepped inside and he held an informal reception before he began to speak.

The meeting was called to order by William E. Sexton, the democratic candidate for state senator, who spoke only long enough to present Congressman Phelan as the presiding officer. Mr. Phelan, who had come from Washington to attend the meeting, received a hearty welcome. He devoted most of the 15 minutes which he occupied to a comparison of what the democrats had accomplished while they had control of the government in Washington with what the republicans had done during the seven months since they had a majority of the house and senate.

He said that during the six years of democratic control more progressive, effective legislation had been put on the statute books than in any similar period in the history of the country. The republicans, he said, had done nothing except to pass a few bridge bills and some other legislation which the democrats had initiated while they had a majority of both branches.

It is time the people here woke up and turned out these republican do-nothings and put at the head of the state government a man of constructive and statesmanlike ability, such as is possessed by our candidate for governor, Richard H. Long.

Long's Speech Applauded

Mr. Long spoke for about 20 minutes in his characteristic, informal way which seems to make such a favorable impression on his auditors. The crowd was not over-demonstrative, but it vigorously applauded his points. He did not mention the Boston police strike, which has been such an important issue in the meetings nearer Boston, but confined his attention chiefly to the social reforms which he promised to bring about if he was elected governor.

Speaking first of his recent experience in Washington, he said:

"As a candidate for governor endorsed by 197,828 voters last year, I went to Washington to refute the false

To Relieve Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness And Head Noises

Persons suffering from catarrhal deafness, or who are growing hard of hearing and have head noises will be glad to know that this distressing affliction can usually be successfully treated at home by an internal medicine that in many instances has effected complete relief after other treatments have failed. Sufferers who could scarcely hear have had their hearing restored to such an extent that the tick of a watch was plainly audible seven or eight inches away from either ear. Therefore, if you know of someone who is troubled with head noises or catarrhal deafness, cut out this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. The prescription can be prepared at home and is made as follows:

Secure from your druggist 1 oz. Parmitin (Double Strength). Take this home and add to it 1/2 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.

Parmitin is used in this way not only to reduce by tonic action the inflammation and swelling in the Eustachian tubes, and thus to equalize the air pressure on the drum, but to correct any excess of secretions in the middle ear, and the result it gives are nearly always quick and effective.

Every person who has catarrh in any form, or distressing rumbling, hissing sounds in their ears, should give this recipe a trial.—Adv.

Charges published as coming from Congressman William Graham, republican chairman of a congressional committee. Such information published before a hearing for political effect is an insult to intelligent voters regardless of party.

I broke all my engagements and went to Washington to refute the false charges. Chairman Graham was surprised to see me as he hadn't notified me or requested me to appear before his committee. I asked him if he were responsible for the published statement. He refused to reply. The so-called investigation was shown to be a political frame-up when Chairman Graham refused to use evidence available at the war claims board, although informed it would show that the contracts of our companies were taken at prices lower than any other contractor, and that the cancellation costs were less than other contractors, saving millions of dollars to the government.

"Our cancellation settlements cost less than 9 per cent, while others cost from 12 per cent. to 41 per cent. I urged that this information be presented in justice to me. The republican managers of Chairman Graham's committee are holding back the truth until after the election.

"In the testimony I brought out the fact that the statement of business F. J. Bennett, stating that $184,000 was charged by our companies for facilities was false, and that the amount was $26,000.

"I then asked Chairman Graham if he still believed we received exorbitant profits and he again refused to answer. He also refused to receive as evidence a statement from Colonel Herbert H. Lehman, formerly purchasing agent, and later chief of the leather and textile division, having charge of the greater part of the U. S. contracts. This letter from Col. Lehman stated in part as follows:

"I had an excellent opportunity of witnessing your manufacturing ability, patriotic spirit and fairness. Soon after this country went into the war we were confronted with the necessity of producing large quantities of personal and horse equipment. It was necessary to develop new sources of supply. Orders which you received were given after competition because of low prices, or your ability to produce equipment promptly. Your production was large and valuable at a time when the requirements were urgent. We learned to depend on your companies and your willingness to make personal and financial sacrifices to meet the requirements."

Congressman Graham also refused to allow me to present other similar evidence.

Never Such a Campaign as This

"There was never such a campaign as this. Knowing that they will be defeated, the republicans have called on the governors of other states to come here and help. One of these visiting governors, I am told, had such a cold reception on the evening on which he spoke here that he hurried away and back to his own state.

"We have a different idea of the way in which to conduct a campaign. We believe that all the people of Massachusetts are intelligent and know what they want—which is merely a square deal.

There is the 5-cent fare. They say the street railways cannot live on a 5-cent fare, but the railways are living and prospering on a 5-cent fare in New York, Philadelphia, San Francisco, Buffalo, Cleveland, Rochester and even down in our own city of New Bedford. The last year they had a 5-cent fare on the Boston Elevated Railway for the profits for the financial interests which controlled the road were $7,000,000. They have a system of bookkeeping which conceals the facts and makes it impossible for the ordinary man to find out what is going on. I know because I have tried in vain to find out. And yet this is not Russia; this is Massachusetts. When I get to be governor I will stop their crooked work and throw the light of day on them.

Must Help Farmers

"We must help our farmers. Everybody needs help except the corrupt interests which are now plundering the commonwealth. They say I am an anarchist and they prate about 'law and order.' No one is more interested than I am in 'law and order.' I live in this state and I expect to stay here. I have a wife and six children. I want them to live in happiness and security.

"The corrupt interests will stop at nothing to win their ends. They don't try to reason. I believe we can build up this state so that there will be good feeling everywhere, so that capital and labor can live amicably together. That is why I have offered myself as a candidate for governor.

"The republicans looked over the situation as it affects the soldiers in this state and decided that they must do something for them and so they placed this $5 poll tax. If that does not raise money enough, and unless you are looking, they will raise that tax next year to $20. The paltry bonus they gave the soldiers does not amount to anything.

"The least we ought to do is to see that every soldier, sailor and marine has a year's pay, $360, from the state treasury. It would take less than a month of the incomes of the rich in this state to provide the money necessary; they have so much money that they don't know what to do with it. We will take it out of the pockets of the rich.

"There is no reason why we should not be now as prosperous as we were during the war. To bring about that

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

"A severe attack of gastric fever weakened me so that my blood was thin," says Mrs. Eugene Sullivan, of No. 114 Park street, Barre, Vt. "It seemed as though I would never regain my strength. My nerves were unstrung and I was upset at the least little noise. I suffered from neuralgia in my head and had rheumatism in my legs and ankles and nothing that I tried gave me any relief. I ate very little and that little didn't give me any strength.

"I read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and decided to give the remedy a trial. It was a fortunate decision for me, for I felt better in a few weeks. My appetite improved and gradually my strength returned. As my blood became richer the neuralgic pains disappeared and finally I was free from rheumatism. I owe my health to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and can certainly recommend the remedy to others."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., 50 cents per box, six boxes $3.50, postpaid. Write for the free booklet, "Building Up the Blood," containing a special chapter on rheumatism.—Adv.

The inquest report on the death of the boy, submitted by Judge Edgerton, finds that the death of the lad was not caused or contributed to by the criminal negligence of Guthrie or any other person.

OIL INSTEAD OF COAL

"Coming events cast their shadows before" and at the present time, we can see the shadow of a very important event, a change that will mean much to all the people of this land—the substitution of oil for coal as a source of power in manufacturing industries.

The Sun has already noted the possibility of the change and the use of oil in several local factories, but the threat of a general strike of bituminous coal miners, has spread such alarm among the leaders of industry in this country, that they have looked into this question of using oil instead of coal and find that oil has a great many advantages over coal, not only in being much easier to handle, but in actual cost for any given unit of power. The facility with which it can be used is equal to that of gas as compared with coal in the kitchen range or in the domestic boiler.

Oil is more easily handled, more easily stored and more easily applied for the purpose of producing power. The stokers and firemen who shovel coal will be no longer required, as one man can attend to the boilers for which oil is used. There is no time lost in getting fires started, no cinders to be removed, and what is a very important consideration, there is no smoke nuisance, no loss of unconsumed fuel sent out over the city.

It is gratifying to find that several of the big cotton mills are to install oil burners in connection with their boilers so as to abandon the use of coal. Other big factories throughout the country are doing the same so that the prospect is, that the miners who have threatened to tie up all industry and leave the nation to freeze in the lap of winter, may soon find that the industries can run without coal.

Even the railroads and the steamships will change to oil for fuel so that the oil fields of this country and of Mexico are likely to be worked to the limit in the near future.

One of the great advantages which every community such as Lowell would derive from the change, would be the elimination of the smoke nuisance. In recent years many of our largest industries have endeavored to eliminate this nuisance, but so long as they use coal this is practically impossible. It is therefore to be hoped that such offenders from the smoke nuisance as the Lowell Electric Light company and the Eastern Massachusetts Railway company will abandon coal and use oil for fuel. The residents of Lowell would rejoice to get rid of the smoke nuisance by such a change if it can be profitably made.

We are informed that the change from coal to oil does not entail great expense, merely the installation of suitable burners and tank connections. The time is not far distant when a large proportion of our industries will be using oil as fuel and will have completely dispensed with the use of coal. It will be a decided step forward in industrial progress and it will teach the miners the much needed lesson that it is very unwise to threaten the public with disaster of any kind, and that—

GREAT LABOR CONFERENCE

Much interest will centre in the International Labor Conference now convened at Washington, under a provision of the treaty of Versailles.

In view of the spirit of unrest that prevails in many countries of the world at the present time, a great deal will depend upon the policies adopted by this conference on the various industrial questions to be discussed. It is a well known fact that in some of the other countries the rules and customs of labor organizations are different from those in force in this country. It is to be presumed, therefore, that through the action of this general body some more uniform policies will be adopted, particularly in regard to hours of labor and working conditions. There can be no uniformity in the matter of wages, for the reason that the purchasing power of the dollar, which in reality should be the standard for the regulation of wages, is much less here than in most other countries, except where extraordinary war prices still prevail.

If the proceedings are controlled by conservative men, who will keep radicalism in the background, the conference can accomplish much that will benefit labor throughout the world. It is necessary, however, to recognize the rights of the employer as well as those of the employed and it is equally necessary to recognize the rights of the public to protection against labor strikes that would tie up public utilities such as coal mines, railroads, street railway systems and various others such as the food supply on which any large number of people must depend for existence.

Should the conference yield to socialistic dictation, it will favor the policy of making repeated demands for increased wages and shorter hours of labor, so that a point may soon be reached at which the employer cannot possibly grant the demands made. It would then be the aim of the socialists to take over the business of the employer and run it on their own account. They want to destroy capital and overthrow the wage system so that they would be their own employers and run the industries to suit themselves. That means revolution.

It is needless to say that nothing of this kind will be tolerated under any well-organized government. Although, under various disguises, it may be carried on for a time even in this country. It can lead only to defeat and disaster in this republic, where the rights of property, of labor and capital find equal justice and protection under our constitution.

If this conference holds to the principles of right and justice, its work may have vast possibilities for good in the thirty odd nations represented, but otherwise, its deliberations will redound to the advantage of the Reds and will only help spread the spirit of Bolshevism throughout the world.

BUILDING HOMES

With this era of high rentals and increased cost of building we are being stirred to thought and action for faster and more economical building. The other day at Union, N. J., under the personal supervision of Thomas A. Edison, the inventor, and Charles H. Ingersoll, the dollar watch man, a cement house was poured and completed just 10 days after the first material was delivered on the ground.

While the building industry has made great strides in the last generation, yet it has not made that of other industries whose parts are highly standardized and made interchangeable and to economical quantity production.

Buildings are still "made" or "built" rather than manufactured or constructed as in the case of cheap watches or clocks, sewing machines, typewriters or low priced automobiles.

Most of the reforms in building methods have been for the monumental, commercial and industrial structures rather than the average dwelling house that most of us can afford to occupy. And the reason has been a good one. Up until about now there has not been the economic demand. And with the demand there will be the supply of reform. Economic necessity is the mother, father, nurse and school teacher of accomplishment.

That the building industry has made progress is indicated by the fact that all building operations are in the nature of assembling on the ground rather than making or forming all the parts up from the raw material and by hand labor on the ground as in times past.

The steel, stone, terra cotta and wood parts of a structure are now cut or formed in well ordered manufacturing plants, equipped with power machine tools, then numbered, taken to the building ground and put into place. But it still requires from 90 to 120 days to build the average frame dwelling house.

But dwelling houses, such as proposed by Edison and Ingersoll, cannot be economically constructed one or two at a time as is usually the case. According to the standardized plan they must be constructed in large numbers and all at once.

Either a large number of individual owners must agree to build at once, or the project must be in the hands of a real estate promoter who will complete the houses and sell to individual owners, according to demand.

In this way the real estate promoter will perform a function much after the manner of the merchant who assembles a stock of standardized manufactured goods for the convenience of the community.

We never solve a problem until it is presented. And no doubt the problem of high rentals and high building prices will solve itself in more and lower cost home owning, and the tendency of which is indicated by the Edison-Ingersoll accomplishment at Union, N. J., the other day.—N. E. A.

FOR ILLITERATES

The senate committee on labor, which investigated the steel strike, has been rather amazed at the information it has obtained relative to existing conditions among the steel workers. It has come to the conclusion that radical steps must be taken for the education of aliens, believing that this course offers the greatest protection against the various forms of radicalism known as socialism, syndicalism and Bolshevism. With 8,000,000 illiterates more than 10 years of age in this country, Senator Kenyon, considers the problem of the highest importance. In presenting his bill he said "America will not tolerate anarchy. It does not propose that a few hundred thousand anarchists shall overthrow its government. There is no place in America for the red flag of anarchy."

It is understood that the committee from its investigations reached the conclusion that if the alien steel workers were able to read and write or to speak English, they would have clearer ideas in regard to their own business and could not be so easily imposed upon by the radical element that organized the strike.

If the steel strike does nothing more than stir congress to a proper sense of responsibility for the alarming state of illiteracy that exists among certain elements, it will have accomplished some good. The forces of radicalism can be better overcome through education than by coercion.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

The local school board is committed to the establishment of a junior high school system in connection with a number of the grammar schools. The course to be provided will be merely an extension of the grammar school curriculum, providing for perhaps two additional years' work. To adopt such a system and bring it to perfection at a single stroke is perhaps too much to expect. We would, therefore, suggest that the system be tried in connection with one or two leading grammar schools in order to ascertain just how it will work out in actual practice. In this way the change will offer the least disturbance to the work of the system.

We believe firmly in the plan of the junior high school as peculiarly adapted to the needs of a city such as Lowell; but yet from the very complication of the extensive change required, it is a matter upon which the school board may find it advantageous to move slowly.

THE AUTO LAWS

The police will deserve the praise of the community if they stop auto speeding in our public streets and on the highways passing through our city. The recent accident on the boulevard is but a type of the accidents that have been far too frequent on that popular roadway. Another thing that the police should look after is the glaring headlights used by some machines. Perhaps one-third of the machines met on the highways at night have headlights so dazzling that autoists meeting them are blinded and can aim only at keeping a safe distance from the blaze. They may run into pedestrians, fences or other objects on the side for the reason that it is impossible for them to see what's ahead while facing such an intense blaze. It is up to the police to put a stop to this abuse which is a very dangerous violation of the law.

Premier Asquith of England has come out strongly against putting any more money into what he terms the "Russian bog." England seldom puts out her money anywhere without expecting a rich return. On some of the loans and other expenditures made by Britain in behalf of Russia it appears that there is but slight chance of a return of any kind. That may explain the prime minister's request to stop all expenditures in behalf of Russia.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

In the present state campaign there has been so much seriousness on the part of speakers for both the democratic and republican cause that few touches of comedy have been afforded those who have had occasion to listen to the spellbinders. However, the strain was lightened a little last Saturday evening at the Long rally on city hall steps. Two of the speakers had been introduced and had said what they had to say concerning the issues of the campaign and then disappeared. Finally, the third speaker, Louis B. Sullivan of the governor's council, was introduced and he, too, spoke at length on the issues involved. Then he began urging support for the entire list of candidates on the democratic ticket and came right down to the Lowell candidates when he said, "And don't forget young Slowey and young Brennan for representative." The crowd laughed when the "young Brennan" part of it came out and when Owen himself was told about it, he laughed as heartily as anybody, although Owen is not very old.

Although empty tenements in Lowell are about as scarce just now as the proverbial hen's teeth, local folks are not as badly off as are the citizens of some of the larger cities of the country where the housing shortage exists in much greater degree than here. And in England, if one is to believe the newspapers across the pond, some householders are waiting for tenants to shuffle off this mortal coil in order to get a dwelling place. The following is from an English publication of recent date:

"House hunters driven to desperation by the extraordinary acuteness of the housing difficulty are adopting extreme measures in South Wales and Monmouthshire. Offers from 20 to 25 pounds as 'key money' are quite common, and sums in proportion are being offered for unfurnished rooms. A remarkable case is reported from Newport. A man heard that the tenant of a house was dying; he immediately held up the landlord and persuaded him, after much hesitation, to give him the option on the premises. Meanwhile the applicant hung around the house day by day keeping a watch on the blinds, and when at last they were drawn he dashed around to the landlord, paid a deposit and secured possession."

SEEN AND HEARD

The board of education of Washington, D. C., has been asked to have boy students half sole their own shoes and girl students to take lessons in darning and mending.

At Mt. Carmel, Pa., according to a news item, an electrician engaged in installing a meter in a residence made a mistake and hooked it to a telephone line. Instead of "helloes," the exchange girls are getting "watts."

The feminine club with the largest membership in London has decreed that hereafter young men must promise to help do the dishes and aid in other housework before the girl can say "yes" to his matrimonial arguments.

Law Closes Old Times

Inns in existence since colonial days are among those closed by the wartime prohibition law. One of the most noted is the Gen. Wayne Inn, on the Montgomery pike outside of Philadelphia, which was opened in 1704 by Quaker settlers as the Wayside Inn. "Mad" Anthony Wayne used the inn as his headquarters during the revolutionary war and it has been a polling place for more than 200 years.

Turk's Head Inn at West Chester has closed its doors. In revolutionary times it was visited by Gen. Washington, Lafayette, "Mad" Anthony Wayne, Col. Taylor and many other officers of Washington's army.

What Worries Him

"Poor old Al!" sighed Mrs. Crimp as the form of her husband vanished down the road. "He's growing shockin' bald."

"Yes, I've noticed it," assented her neighbor. "Ever since his last illness he's been moulting, as you might say. I hope he ain't worrying over it, Mrs. Crimp?"

"Well, it do bother him a bit," she admitted.

"And well it might," said her neighbor. "When my old man lost his hair."

"What worries him?" asked her neighbor. "Ever since his last illness he's been moulting, as you might say. I hope he ain't worrying over it, Mrs. Crimp?"

INDIGESTION AND CONSTIPATION

Quickly Relieved By "Fruit-a-lives"

ROCROS, P. Q.
"I suffered for many years with terrible indigestion and constipation. A neighbor advised 'Fruit-a-lives' (or Fruit Liver Tablets). I tried them. To the surprise of my doctor, I began to improve and he advised me to go on with 'Fruit-a-lives'."

I consider that I owe my life to 'Fruit-a-lives' and I want to say to those who suffer from indigestion, constipation or headaches—try 'Fruit-a-lives' and you will get well! CORINE GAUDREAU.

"Now, Laszky, what you do?" "You?" asked Laszky.

"When you work, of course," said the lawyer.

Does he propose to conceive it a favor that he bestows When he borrows my hard-earned coin?

He knows That I need my money, and yet he goes Paying past payday and never shows Any signs of settling.

I'd punch his nose And tell him some things, but, then, I suppose He never would pay me the money he owes."

Doesn't he know It was in the bank? What makes a man so— So suspicious and grasping?

U. S. TO FIGHT MINERS' STRIKE

Palmer States Government's Stand—Right To Strike Not at Issue

Strike Wrong, He Says—Will Enforce Law Irrespective of Who Involved

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The following statement, said to represent fully the attitude of the government, was issued by Attorney General Palmer last night after a conference with Secretary Wilson, Director General Hines, Secretary Tumulty and United States Assistant Attorneys General Ames and Garvan:

"There can be no doubt that the government has the power in the public interest under the law to deal with the projected strike of the bituminous coal miners without infringing upon the recognized right of men in any line of industry to work when they please and quit work when they please. The illegality of this strike can and will be established without in any way impairing the general right to strike, and the general right to strike is not in issue in any sense whatever in the present situation.

"This is true because the circumstances differ in this case from the case of any other strike that has ever taken place in this country. It does not follow that every strike is lawful merely because the right to strike is recognized to exist. Every case must stand upon its own bottom and be governed by its own facts.

"Therefore when the president said in his statement last Saturday that such a strike in such circumstances is not only unjustifiable, but 'unlawful' reference was had only to the conditions in the impending situation.

Outside the Pale of the Law

"The proposed strike was ordered in a manner, for a purpose and with a necessary effect, which taken together put it outside the pale of the law. After the war began, the production of fuel was regarded as one of the subjects of such peculiar public importance as to justify a special statutory enactment. The fuel administration was created to supervise the subject, while matters of wages as well as prices were considered and sanctioned by the fuel administration.

"After the cessation of hostilities the fuel administration suspended certain of its orders, but did not terminate them, and they are subject to reinstatement at any time upon the president's order and the statute under which the orders were made is still in full force.

"With this situation existing the convention of United Mine Workers at Cleveland last September decided to annul all wage contracts on November 1 and took the unprecedented step of deciding in advance of any opportunity for consultation either with the government or with the coal operators, to strike on November 1, unless satisfactory new arrangements should be made.

No Expression by Workers

"Without any expression from the workers themselves the organization promulgated a demand for a 50 per cent increase in wages, a six-hour day and a five-day week, and authorized a strike to be effective Nov. 1 before the demands were even presented to the operators.

"The demand for a new wage agreement covered only a part of the coal fields, but the strike order was sent broadcast to workers in other fields, where operators had been given no opportunity to even consider demands for increased wages or decreased hours.

"All this has been done while the miners in every field, through their right of collective bargaining had entered into a solemn contract with the operators, fixing wages and hours for a definite period, which has not yet expired.

"The operators, upon the insistence of the president, indicated their willingness to negotiate and arbitrate providing the strike is deferred, while the miners rejected the president's request for arbitration as a means of settlement and refused to defer the strike.

Contracts Not Expired

"Some of the wage contracts were made with the sanction of the federal government, operating through the fuel administration, to run during the continuation of the war or until April 1, 1920. Many others, however, run until a time still in the future without regard for the continuation of the war.

Effects of Strike

"The proposed strike, if carried to its logical conclusion, will paralyze transportation and industry. It will deprive unnumbered thousands of men, who are making no complaint about their employment, of their right to earn a livelihood for themselves and their families; will put cities in darkness and, if continued only for a few days, will bring cold and hunger to millions of our people; if continued for a month, it will leave death and starvation in its wake. It would be a more deadly attack upon the life of the nation than an invading army.

"By enacting the food and fuel control act, congress has recognized the vital importance in the present circumstances of maintaining production and distribution of the necessities of life, and has made it unlawful for any concerted action, agreement or arrangement to be made by two or more persons to limit the facilities of transportation and production, or to restrict the supply and distribution of fuel, or to aid or abet the doing of any act having this purpose or effect. Making a strike effective under the circumstances which I have described amounts to such concerted action or arrangement.

Heads Many Won't Go Out

"It is the solemn duty of the department of justice to enforce this statute. We have enforced it in many cases. We must continue to do so, irrespective of the persons involved in its violation.

Allen Raps Long and Praises Coolidge

BOSTON, Oct. 30.—Declaring that Richard H. Long deliberately sidestepped the Boston policemen's strike issue and refused to make known his stand on it until his nomination for governor was assured, J. Weston Allen, republican candidate for attorney-general, obtained much applause yesterday when he addressed rallies in Hopedale, Northbridge, Whitinsville, throughout Boston and at Bray Hall, Newton Centre.

No Words Mixed

Mr. Allen uttered no words in his attack upon what he termed Long's side-stepping and pussyfooting policies and campaign practices. The speakers of the squadron yesterday included Speaker of the House Joseph Warner, Joseph Lincoln of Taunton and William J. Miller of Brookline. The squadron was a part of the force of 40 speakers that swept over Boston last night and held a series of nine rallies.

Mr. Allen aroused great applause when he demanded that Mr. Long tell the public what he did during the policemen's strike, and the attorney-general candidate also made a vigorous plea that Massachusetts vote for Calvin Coolidge and by his election send a message to all the country that the forces of radicalism and idealism have no place in America.

Long Branded as Selfish

"I asked Mr. Long to tell what he did during the police strike. Wasn't he on the stump trying to get the democratic nomination for governor. Did Mr. Long take any position one way or the other when there was turmoil and riot in Boston? On the contrary, he kept still. He was campaigning for his own selfish interests and did not offer to aid in any way, nor did he dare make any declaration as to his stand one way or the other until he was sure of his nomination. What did Mr. Long say or do when all good citizens were offering their services to assist in maintaining law and order?

"On the other hand your governor, Calvin Coolidge, with his steadfast courage and determination to fulfill his oath of office, came out and announced publicly where he stood faced whatever might come—but first fulfilled his duty to the citizens of this commonwealth and to his oath of office.

"But Mr. Long, he didn't want to lose votes. And now he attacks Governor Coolidge and attempts by circulating untruths, to brand our governor as a coward."

The flying squadron received a warm

STRENGTHENING and enlarging the roots of the hair is one of the real secrets of forcing hair to grow, something which has heretofore not been fully realized. Merely stimulating the surface tissue of the scalp will not stimulate the hair growth to the extent desired. By the new method just mentioned hair can be forced to grow several inches a month. Hair will stop falling as if by magic. The new vigor of the scalp will be quickly noticed, and all bald spots will be soon entirely filled out with new sprouts. This can all be easily obtained by the simple use of beta-quinol, which can be secured at any drug store in its original, one-ounce package for 50 cents. This can be easily mixed at home with a half pint of bay rum and a half pint of water. It contains no oil whatever.

MISS YEARS—On the contrary, removing wrinkles is easy, very easy, astonishingly easy. And it takes but two or three minutes a day and a few cents expense. That you can do it surely and positively will be proven to you absolutely in your mirror in a few days. I dare say, nothing has ever been known to produce such results as by the formula which I give you here. From your drugstore get two ounces of glycol, which will cost 50 cents, and mix with one tablespoonful of glycolic acid. Then look in the mirror and try to see them—you'll be surprised.—Adv.

ALL OVER—It is the easiest thing you can imagine to get rid of blackheads. They can be removed in a few minutes—and if you doubt it, just get some powdered rosin at the drug store for fifty cents, sprinkle some of it on a wet cloth and rub it on the blackheads. Then look in the mirror and try to see them—you'll be surprised.—Adv.

"You have an opportunity on Tuesday to go out and state what you believe we should do in the preservation of our laws, our constitution and our institutions, and we shall send, I hope and firmly believe, a message to all the country that is watching us by re-electing our governor, Calvin Coolidge, and sending out the word that Massachusetts again leads, as she always does, the entire country in the stand for the preservation of law and liberty and simonpure 100 per cent Americanism."

The charge has been made that this is a drive against organized labor," said Mr. Cox. "Nothing could be farther from the truth. Look at Governor Coolidge's record favoring organized labor. But look at who is standing with Mr. Long.

The speaker claimed that the governor would receive support from many leading democrats.

"You have an opportunity on Tuesday to go out and state what you believe we should do in the preservation of our laws, our constitution and our institutions, and we shall send, I hope and firmly believe, a message to all the country that is watching us by re-electing our governor, Calvin Coolidge, and sending out the word that Massachusetts again leads, as she always does, the entire country in the stand for the preservation of law and liberty and simonpure 100 per cent Americanism."

STRENGTHENING and enlarging the roots of the hair is one of the real secrets of forcing hair to grow, something which has heretofore not been fully realized. Merely stimulating the surface tissue of the scalp will not stimulate the hair growth to the extent desired. By the new method just mentioned hair can be forced to grow several inches a month. Hair will stop falling as if by magic. The new vigor of the scalp will be quickly noticed, and all bald spots will be soon entirely filled out with new sprouts. This can all be easily obtained by the simple use of beta-quinol, which can be secured at any drug store in its original, one-ounce package for 50 cents. This can be easily mixed at home with a half pint of bay rum and a half pint of water. It contains no oil whatever.

MISS YEARS—On the contrary, removing wrinkles is easy, very easy, astonishingly easy. And it takes but two or three minutes a day and a few cents expense. That you can do it surely and positively will be proven to you absolutely in your mirror in a few days. I dare say, nothing has ever been known to produce such results as by the formula which I give you here. From your drugstore get two ounces of glycol, which will cost 50 cents, and mix with one tablespoonful of glycolic acid. Then look in the mirror and try to see them—you'll be surprised.—Adv.

ALL OVER—It is the easiest thing you can imagine to get rid of blackheads. They can be removed in a few minutes—and if you doubt it, just get some powdered rosin at the drug store for fifty cents, sprinkle some of it on a wet cloth and rub it on the blackheads. Then look in the mirror and try to see them—you'll be surprised.—Adv.

BOSTON POLICE STRIKE He Quit Tobacco

Counsel For Striking Police- men Defend Their Action and Blame Governor

Hon. James H. Vahcy and Hon. John P. Feeney, counsel for the striking policemen of the city, spoke before a gathering of some 200 men in the Street Carmen's union hall in Bunick building last evening. The visitors came here to explain conditions in Boston prior and after the police strike. Both speakers attacked Gov. Calvin Coolidge for not having stepped in between Police Commissioner Curtis and the policemen when he could have done so and prevented the calamities that occurred after the strike was declared.

The meeting was presided over by Thomas Powers, president of the Street Carmen's union, and he introduced as the first speaker Mr. Vahcy, who in opening said there seem to be some in this state who think they have a monopoly on citizenship and on law and order. "Gov. Coolidge," he continued, "seems to believe that even democrats should vote for him as governor."

"I don't think there has been any necessity for such a lack of understanding as there is relative to the Boston police strike. Mr. Feeney and myself have volunteered to enlighten any community on it and we know more about it than the governor, his supporters or any other two men in the state. I am personally interested in seeing the governor defeated, not because he is Calvin Coolidge, not because he is a republican, but because he has tried to make a deer mal of the Boston police, their wives and families."

"The Boston police issue is not a political question and was not made such by the police or their counsel, or their wives, mothers and children and any man who tries to make political capital out of the welfare of men deserves the greatest condemnation by the public. Plain speaking is necessary in order that this case may be understood for it is necessary that all labor men know what is being done in raising a false issue and by using the Boston police as a club to crush labor organizations."

"The Boston police have just as much right to join a labor union as you, street carmen have under the laws of Massachusetts. You had a right to form a union and you did and you are FREE TO Asthma Sufferers

Abandon Hope That Miners Are Alive

STUBBENVILLE, Ohio, Oct. 30.—After battling their way to within 150 feet of where 20 miners have been imprisoned since yesterday morning, rescue workers were ordered out of the Y & O mine at Amsterdam, Ohio, at 6 o'clock this morning, by the officials and state mine inspectors, who feared an explosion might occur, according to word received here. Hope has been abandoned that the miners are alive.

Child Labor Legislation

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Pausing in their consideration of the question of child labor legislation, one of the main subjects before the international congress of working women in session here, the delegates heard today an address by Secretary Baker. Later in the day, they were invited to take tea at the residence of Mrs. Josephus Daniels, wife of the secretary of the navy.

Co. and the beef trust, and the commissioner has not yet explained why, when the attorney general of the commonwealth and the attorney for the corporation of Boston were at his service, he retained the services of Parker, a trust man.

"Finally the committee worked out a plan with the assistance of Charles F. Choate, a republican and a friend of the governor, which provided that a committee of three citizens should be appointed to make investigations as to the hours of labor and the wage conditions of the policemen, and the committee to report to the mayor and the commissioner. This committee was to be selected, one by the commissioner, another by the mayor and the third by the policemen. As this plan was being prepared the governor disappeared and he has yet given no explanation as to where he was when the strike broke out. On Sunday scouts were sent out to look up the commissioner, but the latter could not be found. He was at the home of his counsel at Lancaster. We wanted him to postpone his finding in order to avert a strike. Not being able to find the commissioner, the mayor's committee sought the governor, who was in Greenfield for a short time. The governor did not do anything. He could have stopped the strike by raising his finger, and there was no one who could stop the strike after the commissioner had made his finding public, except the governor."

"Before the strike was declared the mayor went to the commissioner and asked him to call out the state guard as a precaution, but the commissioner replied in the negative, saying he had men to take the places of the strikers. The governor was then appealed to, but the same answer was received from the chief magistrate."

Mr. Vahcy then said if the plan of the mayor's committee had been accepted the strike would have been averted. He stated that when the governor saw that the commissioner would not do anything to prevent the strike, he should have said to the commissioner, "The policemen may be wrong, but the mayor, the chamber of commerce, the mayor's committee and the

How American Women Break Down

Owing to the modern manner of living and the nervous haste of every woman to accomplish just so much each day, they overdo, and as a consequence develop ailments peculiar to their sex, as is indicated by backache, headache, nervousness, the blues, displacements and weakness.

Women who find themselves in this condition should slow down, and depend upon that good old fashioned root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, to restore them to health and strength, for there is no other remedy known that so quickly restores a healthy, normal condition.

Here is the Story of a Most Remarkable Recovery

Minneapolis, Minn.—"I was run down and nervous, could not rest at night, and was more tired in the morning than when I went to bed. I have two children, the youngest three months old, and it was drudgery to care for them as I felt so irritable and generally worn out. From lack of rest and appetite my baby did not get enough nourishment from me, so I started to give him two bottle feedings a day. After taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt like a new woman, full of life and energy. It is a pleasure to care for my children and I am very happy with them and feel fine. I nurse my baby exclusively again, and can't say too much for your medicine."

AVERAGE PERSON KNOWS WHAT THE COMMUNITY ONLY SIX FLAGS

How many flags do you recognize? Though the world war has served to familiarize us with flags of some of our allies, the average person's repertoire of flags still does not exceed a dozen," says a bulletin from the Washington headquarters of the National Geographic Society.

Flags are important not only as patriotic and artistic emblems, but many times the histories of nations are symbolized in their flags.

As the first of a series of bulletins "Flags You May Never Have Met," a society quotes from a communication concerning the emblems of two "lost pocket nations" as follows:

The red and white flag of Monaco was over the smallest nation on earth. The entire area of the territory, whose symbol of authority it is, is only eight square miles. Although it is smallest in area, there are three small states, as compared with 6231 for Austria, 10,716 for Liechtenstein, and 11,513 for San Marino.

Monaco is a small principality on the Mediterranean, surrounded by the French department of Alpes-Maritimes, except on the side toward the sea. After 935 A.D. it belonged to the house of Grimaldi. The reigning prince was deposed during the French revolution in 1792, and died in 1795. In 1814 the principality was re-established, but placed under the protection of the kingdom of Sardinia by the treaty of Vienna in 1815. In 1848 the towns of Mentone and Roccabruna, known as Roquebrune, revolted and declared themselves free. The prince thereupon ceded his rights over them to France, when the Sardinian prince was withdrawn and the principality established in 1815 ended. The prince was an absolute ruler until 1911, when a representative government was set up.

San Marino claims to be the oldest state in Europe. Next to Monaco, it is the smallest independent country in the world. It has 30 square miles of territory and a population of 15,000. The coat-of-arms consists of three hills in gold upon a field of blue. These hills are Monte Giulato, Monte Moro and Monte Gista, each bearing a castle surmounted by a plume. The field has a gold crown as a crest and is surrounded by branches of laurel and oak united by a ribbon inscribed with the word "Liberty."

The ensign of the republic of San Marino consists of a field the upper part of which is blue and the lower part white. The coat-of-arms is centered on it.

With its field shared by yellow and blue, the latter occupying the lower half, the national banner of the principality of Liechtenstein flies over a nation having an area of 65 square miles.

The blue, yellow and red flag of Andorra, with its coronet in the center, is the youngest thing in the nation. It is only 50 years old, having originated in the reform of 1866 to emphasize the autonomy of the valley; but neither the co-suzerains has approved it, is displayed when the council is in session.

HOUSE MEANS

It is fitting that the great war, fought for democracy, should give birth to a movement for truly democratic memorials, for memorials which should commemorate the victory of a great people rather than be a monument to the vanity and power of one man, says Building Age, New York.

In days past, let us hope forever, it was an Alexander, a Caesar, a Napoleon to whose name the glory of victory attached not to the name of a people. It was the ruler who led his armies to victory who was commemorated, rather than a principle or the achievements of a great nation. The symbols of such victory quite fittingly took the form of monuments for the personal glorification of the leader.

Today, victory rests upon the arms of the people and those chosen to represent them. And memorials to their victory should be such as to enter into the life and spirit of the nation if the victory is to be fittingly celebrated.

This feeling has permeated the United States. A few communities still hold to the erecting of a memorial arch monument, or other traditional commemoration of the victories of autocratic government. But by far the greater number is, with a true American democratic spirit, seeking to erect memorials that will be a part of the life of the people and cultivate the community spirit.

No better way in which to express this spirit can be found than in the sentiment for so-called community buildings, for buildings which shall provide a meeting place for the citizens where recreation may be had, theatrical, sports or other. Such buildings in their highest development form a center for the life of the community and foster a spirit that can not help but make better citizens of us all.

Unlike the formal monument which is often looked at but seldom seen, the community building enjoys the throes of life. The realization of this has caused most communities to feel that it is far better to spend money in such a way as to be an investment, rather than to so spend it that it will be a useless eyesore to the town which has not felt the democratic urge to commemorate the great war in the same spirit in which it was fought—and won.

Try Making Your Own Cough Remedy

You can save about $7, and have a better remedy than the ready-made kind. Ready-made cough remedies are expensive. If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any drugist 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Tastes pleasant and never fails.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs.

To avoid disappointment, ask your drugist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

"BOB" HART STARS IN FOUR GOOD BOUTS ON NEW BEDFORD VICTORY CARD FOR TONIGHT

Lowell gave the All Star New Bedford victory card for two periods last night, but the two periods were not the final periods of the night. The first period was a close battle, with the Whalers leading 1-0 at the end of the first period. The second period was a more one-sided affair, with the Whalers leading 4-0 at the end of the second period. The final score was 5-0 in favor of the Whalers.

The New Bedford team, without doubt one of the strongest and most experienced in the league, showed a classy passing game and presented a defense that Lowell found difficult to penetrate. The Whalers, on the other hand, were in excellent form, with "Bob" Hart leading the attack. Hart, who has been one of the league's top players, scored four goals in the second period, helping to seal the victory for his team.

The first period found both teams working industriously with each other. The Whalers, however, were more effective, scoring the only goal of the period. The second period was a more one-sided affair, with the Whalers leading 4-0 at the end of the second period. The final score was 5-0 in favor of the Whalers.

Lowell, much lighter than the visitors, weakened under the terrific pace, and when a couple of easy ones trickled through, the Whalers, after the third period opened the old game blew, with the result that New Bedford piled them up, while Lowell's scoring was confined to a couple by Davies. OPPOSES ADOPTION

Massachusetts Civic Alliance
Against Constitution in
Rearranged Form

(Special to The Sun.)

STATE HOUSE, Boston, Oct. 30.—Adoption by the people at the coming election of the state constitution as rearranged by the convention sitting during the summer of 1915 and a part of the last one, is opposed by the Massachusetts Civic Alliance.

It contends that if the rearranged code is accepted there is a possibility of a conflict in the interpretation of the law may arise because of a provision that "such rearrangement shall not be deemed or taken to change the meaning or effect of any part of the constitution or its amendments as theretofore existing or operative."

In a statement issued on the subject today the alliance says:

"We believe that the public will be surprised and disappointed to know that if the new constitution is ratified at the state election it will not be the final and complete constitution but that we shall have possibly conflicting constitutions from the present form and the rearrangement. In view of the possibility of doubt and law-suits for an indefinite future, the alliance submits to the voters the expediency of rejecting the new draft for reasons clearly stated by former Attorney General Parker in the convention when he said:

"I should say that no one would attempt, as we conceive the significance of this new instrument, to compare it as the constitution of this commonwealth without comparing the original text of the constitution and amendments for the rearranged text. For the purpose of determining such construction the documents must be examined in comparison one with the other. It is not, as we conceive it, a substantial constitution. It is a rearranged constitution, preserving in its phrase all the provisions which are believed to be now operative. If some that are now operative be not found in the new text they are still existing as the cardinal law of the commonwealth."

"To determine what is the constitutional law of Massachusetts it would be necessary for the careful investigator whose opinion was sought as to what then was the existing constitutional provision, to examine both the rearranged constitution, which is primarily for the convenience of the lawyer, or whoever cares to examine it, to determine its provisions; but its construction it must be read in association with all the existing texts, both of original constitution and amendments."

FINDS STRIKE ILLEGAL

Master's Report in Shoe Shop
Injunction Sustains Employers' Allegations

A finding that the strike of employees of four Lowell shoe shops was illegal is contained in the report on the injunction proceedings instituted by the Federal Shoe Co. and the L. H. Spaulding Shoe Co. against the officers and members of the Allied Shoe Workers' union and against the union itself as a body, submitted by G. A. A. Percy of Cambridge, who sat as master at the hearings.

The report covers the main question and allied considerations at great length and is important enough to create a precedent for future acts of similar nature arising out of differences between employer and employee. The strike of the Allied Shoe Workers' union went into effect at both these factories about July 23 and has continued ever since. The two companies brought bills in equity in the superior court early in August, alleging that the strike was unlawful, for the reason that it was instituted for the purpose of causing, and enforcing a closed shop. Hearings before the master were held for eight days and he took the case under consideration early in September.

On the question of the allegation of the employers that the strike was called for the enforcement of a closed shop, the master finds as follows: "I find as a fact that the strike was to take place and did in fact take place in all the five shops, except the Barry shop, to wit: in the Pilling, H. H. Mawhinney Co., Foster and L. H. Spaulding Co., because these four shops refused to recognize the union and for that reason or grievance alone. By recognition of the union by the employers I find on the evidence was meant the employment in the future of union men only—to prevent the plaintiff from employing in its factory any person not a member of the Allied Shoe Workers' union—the maintenance in the future of a closed shop—and to prevent the employers from employing such persons as they see fit."

The master also finds that the plaintiff in each instance suffered substantial damage by reason of the strike and in almost every other case sustains the allegations of the plaintiffs in relation to the conduct of the strike, threats of violence, intimidation, etc. The Federal Shoe Co. and the L. H. Spaulding Co. were represented at the hearings by Edward J. Tierney, while Daniel J. Donahue represented the Allied Shoe Workers' union. Mr. Donahue has filed exceptions to the finding and also a petition to the superior court, that the facts be recommitted to the master for the consideration of further evidence, the exclusion of which, he claims, was contrary to the law.

N. E. HAS TWO MONTHS' SUPPLY

Government Ready To Curtail Supply of Coal in Industries 50 Per Cent

New England Has Enough Coal on Hand To Last For Two Months, Says Lane

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Secretary Lane announced as the cabinet met that the government would not hesitate to curtail the consumption of coal in industries 50 per cent, in order that the coal on hand and that available from unaffected non-union mines might be equitably distributed to essential industries.

The curtailment list used by the war industries board during the war would be taken as the basis for the industries to be supplied, Mr. Lane said. Plants engaged in manufacturing munitions might be cut off altogether.

The current supply of coal from non-union mines is sufficient to meet domestic demands and supply the needs of railroads and public utilities, Mr. Lane said. New England has stored away a two months' supply which will take care of all requirements for that period.

The northwest has a fair winter's supply stored at Duluth, Minn., and other nearby storage points, Mr. Lane said.

There are from 150,000,000 to 200,000,000 tons of non-union mined coal yearly and this would be divided as follows: Railroad supply, 100,000,000 and public utilities, 25,000,000.

LOWELL YOUNG MEN GET K. OF C. SCHOLARSHIPS

Three Lowell young men have been honored by the Knights of Columbus with scholarships which entitle them to tuition, board and books at leading colleges of the state. It was announced today. The young men are Vincent McCarlin of 236 Rogers street, John C. Sargent of 123 Coburn street and William C. Ready of 10 Bertha street.

The scholarships are part of the reconstruction work being undertaken by the Knights of Columbus all over the country. They are confined to men who served in the world war in the army, navy or marine corps, but any veteran who was able to pass the necessary examination was eligible for one of the honors, no matter what his race or creed.

A total of 55 scholarships were distributed in Massachusetts and three of them have come to Lowell. Messrs. Ready and Sargent are students at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and McCarlin is at Holy Cross college. They all saw service in the world war.

VISIT OF ROYAL PARTY TO U. S. NEAR END

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The visit of the Belgian royal family to America drew near the close today. This, the last full day of their stay in this country provided a diversified program, including an informal tea at the White House at 4 o'clock with Mrs. Wilson and a visit to the naval academy at Annapolis by King Albert and Crown Prince Leopold.

For Queen Elizabeth the program called for a visit to Johns Hopkins hospital at Baltimore, and the Red Cross hospital for the blind, accompanied by Mrs. Brand Whitlock, wife of the ambassador to Belgium.

During the day King Albert was to receive dekreets from George Washington university and the Catholic university and Queen Elizabeth was to have conferred upon her a degree from Trinity college.

The last formal function the royal guests will attend in this country will be a dinner at the Belgian embassy tonight given in their honor by Baron De Cartier, Belgian ambassador.

WAS REALLY KIDNAPPED

Reports Indicative of Connivance by Jenkins and Mexican Bandits Refuted

MEXICO CITY, Wednesday, Oct. 29. Published intimations that the abduction of William O. Jenkins, American consular agent at Puebla, presented phases indicative of connivances by Jenkins and certain of his associates with the bandits, are refuted in a story published by the Excelsior. The newspaper's story is the result of an investigation by its special representatives in Puebla.

The Excelsior says the consular agent was really kidnapped and that Cordova, leader of the bandits signed a receipt for 300,000 pesos, although it says it is not known how much of this amount has been paid or who paid it.

The arrest of Jenkins' attorney, who has been released on bail, is believed to have been brought about by the local courts wanting to assure testimony to aid in clearing up more or less hazy charges in connection with what persons paid over the ransom money.

The condition of Mr. Jenkins who is still in the hospital, suffering from the effects of a week's privations, made it impossible for him to give out a statement today.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS TO CLOSE TOMORROW

The public schools of the city will be closed all day tomorrow to allow the teachers to attend the fifth annual meeting of the Middlesex County Teachers' association at Boston. While attendance at the meeting is not obligatory, practically every Lowell teacher will be present and special cars will be attached to early morning trains to accommodate them.

Local teachers have a peculiar interest in this year's meeting, inasmuch as the salary question is to be treated in several ways. Also, Henry H. Harris, head master of the Varnum school, is chairman of the 1915 o'clock meeting in the elementary school section, at which time Frederic Houston Kent of Boston, Y.M.C.A. educational director for England, will deliver an address on "The Real British Attitude Towards America."

The meeting is divided into two sections. Elementary school teachers will attend sessions in Tremont Temple, while high school teachers will spend the day in the hearing room in the east wing of the state house. High school teachers anticipate hearing Miss Florence M. Hale of Augusta, Maine, speak on "Better Salaries for Better Teachers," while the elementary school teachers will have the pleasure of listening to Arthur W. Kallom of Somerville speak on the subject, "Teachers' Salaries in Massachusetts." Mr. Kallom is an official in the department of investigation and measurement in the Boston public schools and is conducting a nation-wide survey of the subject in teachers' salaries.

To Confiscate Coal in Transit Will Use War Priorities List Fuel Administration in Control Punish Profiteers and Hoarders

Federal Agencies, Convinced Strike Cannot Be Prevented, Move Swiftly To Meet Situation—Department of Justice Ready To Jail Law Violators—Troops To Protect Public and Miners Who Wish To Work

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Federal government agencies moved swiftly today to meet the situation which will result from the strike of half a million bituminous coal miners Saturday.

Developments included: Orders to railroads to confiscate all coal in transit if necessary, to build up a reserve for operation of the roads.

Re-establishment of the priorities list of the fuel administration so that the railroads, public service utilities and essential industries will have first call on whatever coal is mined and on that in storage.

Preparation of an executive order establishing maximum prices for coal and completion of plans by the department of justice to punish those guilty of profiteering and hoarding.

Announcement by Secretary Lane that the government would not hesitate to curtail consumption of coal in industries 50 per cent so that essential industries might be kept in operation.

General discussion of the situation by President Wilson's cabinet, which met in special session at the call of Secretary Lansing.

Working out of plans by which miners who wish to continue work will be afforded every possible protection, including that of federal troops should that become necessary.

At the conclusion of the special cabinet meeting, Attorney General Palmer announced that the fuel administrator would take control of

COOLIDGE SPELLBINDER

Former Member of House of Representatives Talks at Saco-Lowell Shops

William M. Robinson of Boston, a former member of the house of representatives, addressed a gathering of 500 employees of the Saco-Lowell shops in front of the plant in Dutton street this noon, in the interest of the candidacy of Governor Coolidge.

Mr. Robinson divided his address almost evenly between the issue of the Boston police strike and the fact that Richard H. Long, democratic candidate for governor, is promising extensive bonuses to the soldiers and sailors of the state although it is alleged that he failed to give bonuses to the employees of his own shoe factory during the war.

"They talk about the hardships of the Boston policemen," said Mr. Robinson. "Continued to Page 14"

AUTOISTS MUST KEEP LIGHTS BURNING

Autoists must have both head and tail lights lighted after dusk, whether their machines are traveling along a highway or parked on the street and whether the street or highway is well lighted or not.

So said Judge Enright in police court today in disposing of the much discussed question as to whether the automobile laws require machines on brilliantly lighted streets to have both front and rear lights lighted while in motion or parked, which question has been the cause for considerable argument in police circles recently. His Honor also stated that the law defines a man who leaves his car and goes into an adjacent store or other place as still the operator of the machine, making him liable to the penalties prescribed by law if his car is not properly lighted in his absence.

Judge Enright made this statement in disposing of the cases of John S. "Continued to Page 14"

Germans Must Sign Another Protocol

PARIS, Oct. 30. (Havas).—Before the peace treaty becomes effective, the German representatives will be required, it is expected here, to sign an additional protocol, binding Germany to carry out armistice clauses which were not incorporated in the treaty of Versailles. The supreme council today considered the text of the proposed instrument.

Miners' Union Head Attacks Wilson

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 30.—A direct attack upon President Wilson's course in the coal strike situation as the "climax of a long series of attempted usurpation of executive power," was made today by John L. Lewis, acting president, and the executive board of the United Mine Workers of America. The attack came in a long telegram to Secretary of Labor Wilson, replying to a message from him delivered to the conference here yesterday of some four score officials and leaders of the union.

Long Murder Case Given to Jury

MONTPELIER, Vt., Oct. 30.—The case of the state vs. George A. Long, charged with the murder of Mrs. Lucina C. Broadwell in Barry, the night of May 3, 1919, was given to the jury this afternoon following the charge to the jury by Judge F. M. Butler.

Attorney General F. C. Archibald made the closing argument in the case, finishing just before the noon recess. He most scathingly denounced Long, referring to him as "a male being, having the form of a man, charged with a most atrocious and fiendish crime," and also as "this thing" and "that thing," pointing his finger at the accused.

Six Killed, 120 Injured in Wreck

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 30.—Six dead and about 120 persons injured, some seriously, was the known casualty list today, as a result of the wreck of the Southern Pacific's "San Joaquin Valley Special" late yesterday. The tangled mass of wreckage near Acton, a few miles from here, was expected to reveal additional bodies. Railroad officials said the wreck was caused by the engineer attempting to make too much speed on a 10 degree curve.

The engineer, fireman and four passengers comprise the known dead.

SENATE REJECTS AMENDMENTS

Moses Amendment and Two Others Are Consigned to the Discard

New Obstacles Arise—Sherman Shouts Refuses To Pray—Walsh in Debate

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The 46 amendments attached to the peace treaty by the foreign relations committee passed into history yesterday, when the last survivor of the group, a proposal by Senator Moses, republican, New Hampshire, to revise voting strength in the League of Nations, was consigned to the discard in the senate by a vote of 47 to 35.

As if gaining impetus by this accomplishment, the senate then upset two more proposed textual changes, brought in by individual senators. One of them, presented by Senator Sherman, republican, Illinois, and proposing to write into the treaty preamble a reference to the deity, was laid on the table by a vote of 57 to 27.

DANGER AHEAD! LOOK OUT!

Colds and Grippe frequently will leave you with weak kidneys, and aching back. The kidneys get overworked fighting off a cold or a contagious disease. When they slow up, and don't perform their duties, look out, there is trouble brewing.

Kidney and bladder troubles are dangerous, and should not be neglected. If you are compelled to arise from your slumber once or twice during the night, it proves that your kidneys are affected and bladder irritated. And if you will take from 10 to 20 drops of SEVEN BARKS in a little water after meals, you will correct the alkalinity of your secretions, thus giving you undisturbed sleep and peaceful rest, preparing you for your next day's duties.

If you feel dull, irritable and nervous, have headaches, sore or enlarged joints, irregular kidney actions, you should give the kidneys quick relief by taking SEVEN BARKS, which will not only relieve the kidney trouble, but keep your stomach in good condition and your liver active.

Don't neglect your kidney trouble with first symptoms. You will be sorry if you do—it's too serious a matter. Get SEVEN BARKS of your druggist. Price, 50 cents.—Adv.

Johnson, republican, California, as a new solution for voting inequality in the league, was killed outright by a count of 43 to 35.

At adjournment, however, the effort to hasten final action had brought up an obstacle which seemed likely to prevent further progress for several days. Tomorrow a determined group of senators will launch a fight to eliminate the labor section of the treaty, opening a debate which in view of unsettled labor conditions over the country is expected by the leaders to last at least a week.

Nine republicans joined the democrats in overthrowing the Moses amendment, which provided that none of the British dominions should vote in any league controversy directly affecting any one of them. Three democrats voted with the republicans supporting it.

The labor section, although not before the senate at all, got the biggest share of attention. Senator La Follette, republican, Wisconsin, in a three-hour speech assailing the proposed international labor organization as filled with peril to American labor.

The debate on Senator Sherman's amendment got into the realm of literature and religion. Mr. Sherman declaring Voltaire would have rejected to see the collection of "Godless men" who gathered at Versailles, and Senator Lodge, republican, Massachusetts, replying with Maebeth's exclamation: "I cannot say 'God bless us.'" It would have been a travesty, said Mr. Lodge, to invoke divine blessing on such a treaty.

Senator Thomas, democrat, Colorado, said he did not favor "saddling the Almighty with all the sins of man." Other opponents declared such a reference in the treaty would make trouble because of the many religions represented.

The chair was unable to control the galleries when Senator Sherman, saying he was not a member of any church, got into a tilt with Senator Robinson, democrat, Arkansas.

"I have never prayed in my life," said Mr. Sherman.

"Doesn't the senator think," interjected Senator Robinson, "that it's about time to begin?"

"No," Mr. Sherman shouted, while the galleries kept up a roar of laughter. "No, not at the appearance of any such antagonist as the senator from Arkansas. I can take care of him myself."

Walsh in Debate

The motion to table was made by Senator Robinson after Senator Walsh, democrat, Massachusetts, who had voted for several committee amendments, pleaded that senators who were consistently opposing all amendments as matter of principle should not be asked to go on record directly in regard to

SERGEANT RUTH FARNAM

Woman Who Saw Service

in World War Tells Story

of Serbia

In her second appearance in Lowell, Sergt. Ruth Farnam of the Serbian cavalry, who saw varied service in the world war, gave an interesting account of her experiences overseas to a large audience in Colonial hall last evening under the auspices of the Young Women's Christian association.

The lecture was held in aid of the Serbian relief fund, and Mrs. Farnam said that the purpose of the fund was never has she fought a war of aggression.

The speaker said that Serbia had often been accused of cruelty in her methods of warfare, but she had seen just the opposite while she was serving at the Serbian front. Serbian soldiers who had been taken prisoners by the enemy often returned with ears and lips cut off, but the very next day Serbian surgeons would care for wounded of the enemy with just as much tenderness as they bestowed on their own countrymen.

Suffering among the Serbian children is intense at the present time, Sergt. Farnam says, and will grow worse as the winter advances. There are at least 500,000 orphans in the country, most of them thinly clad, hungry and suffering from infantile tuberculosis. If help is not forthcoming at once they will not live through another winter.

Mrs. Farnam said that not only money but clothing, even though it is second hand, is urgently needed. The Serbian relief committee in New York is the clearing house for such articles in this country.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

A very enjoyable Halloween party was held last evening by the employees of the Kresge store, in the newly appointed recreation quarters for the clerks, over the store in Merrimack street. The affair was arranged by the management. During the evening many games were played, a musical program carried out and refreshments served. The clerks have formed an association with the hearty approval of the management, and have been given the free use of the new quarters for meetings and recreational purposes. The officers are: Grace McCafferty, president, Cecelia Crann, secretary and Mabel Sullivan, treasurer.

THESE ARE FACTS! Ostroff Sells Lower HOW DOES HE DO IT?

Here's the Whole Story

During the last part of April, 1919, the salesman of the Crown Overall Co., the largest overall factory in the world, came to me with his samples. I examined them very carefully and placed an order with him for immediate delivery. But after careful consideration and close figuring of the prices I had paid for this special style of overalls before and during the war, I came to the conclusion that there was no chance of going lower in my prices but that, instead, I would be compelled to go higher.

I called the salesman on the telephone and placed orders with him for May, June, July, August and up to October. Shipments were to be made every week which were considerably more than ten other stores could use. The result is that they owe me part of the shipments of July, August, September and October with prices 25 to 75% LOWER THAN TODAY.

The salesman thought that I had gone out of my head and could not understand why we had not gone out of business. I insisted, however, that I knew what I was doing and the firm accepted my order in good faith. Now when the same salesman comes into my store he laughs. I think you can easily guess the cause of his mirth.

I have also bought all the other wearing apparel which I now carry in stock, in the same way.

There's the tale—THINK IT OVER.

The coming of Mr. Owen will mean that three local mill treasurers will make their homes in this city, the others being Charles F. Young of the Tremont & Sunnyside mills and Frederick A. Flather of the Duott mills.

Mr. Owen succeeds the late A. G. Cunnock as treasurer of the Appleton Co.

Pile Sufferers! Clever Ohio Chemist

Says This Great Prescription Taken Internally Has Never Failed

Even chronic cases of 20 to 30 years' standing, with profuse bleeding, have been completely cured in from three to ten days.

No discovery of recent years in the field of medicine has caused such a stir amongst the medical profession as the recent discovery that piles can be successfully treated and cured at home by a wonderful prescription known to druggists as Anuric Pile Remedy.

It has been proved that so called external remedies applied or inserted into the rectum cannot cure piles and at the best can only give temporary relief. This is also true of surgical operations which simply remove them after formation, but in no wise act on the source of the trouble.

This prescription, although taken internally, is not digested in the stomach, but is rapidly passed on unchanged to the intestines in a short time, reaching the exact place where by its soothing, healing action, it first allays all inflammation and then by direct contact with all ulcers and piles, causes them to heal and disappear forever.

It's positively marvelous how speedily it acts. Blessed relief often comes in two or three days at most, even in cases with profuse bleeding that have resisted all known treatments and operations. Truly wonderful results have been accomplished.

The author of this amazing discovery desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Anuric Pile Remedy decisively conquers even in the worst cases and he has instructed druggists all over the country to guarantee it in every case of blind, bleeding or protruding piles.

IMPORTANT—What is known as itching piles are not piles in the true sense of the word, although this condition may accompany a true case of piles. For this condition Anuric Pile Remedy has been prepared as an internal treatment. $1.50, War Tax 50c. Ointment 50c, War Tax 25c extra. Guaranteed Remedies Co., Elvira, Ohio.

Health Column Conducted by
United States Public
Health Service

The following article on temperance and typhoid is prepared under the direction of Rupert Blue, surgeon general, United States public health service:

What profiteth a man that he gain the whole world, yet lose his health? Naturalists say that long ago the prehistoric waters were infested with a species of enormous shark which finally became extinct by reason of the workings of its voracious appetite. This nature eliminates the over-fed.

The desire for ease of life and plentiful diet is universal and is the great stimulus of man and animals alike. When man becomes greedy and takes more ease and food and drink than is his share, nature discards him.

In the race for power and place, for ease of circumstance and relief from the stimulus of hunger, the modern man is apt to forget that unless he is careful of his body he will soon be made to suffer for the infraction of nature's inexorable physical law. With the loss in body tone comes an equal loss in mental acuity, and the brain, which for a time was able to operate despite the complaints of an overfed, under-exercised, self-poisoned body, stops working.

Statisticians assure us that the mortality rate of persons over 45 years of age is not only not decreasing but apparently even slightly increasing. The strenuous life of today is not alone responsible for this. Lack of health-giving exercise, superfluity of diet, lack of restoring sleep, the high pressure of the race for power, wealth and position, plus physical neglect—these bring early decay. The goal is reached—wealth is amassed—honor, position and power are just being grasped when the apple of achievement turns to the ashes of dissolution. The brilliant mind becomes clouded, the steady hand is no longer accurate, the eye which once gazed fearlessly on the whole world is dimmed and it is not long before the final break-up occurs. All of this was entirely preventable.

Other things being equal it is the man who leads the well-balanced life who lasts the longest, whose work to the end is uniformly the best, he who neither overworks, nor overplays, neither over-eats, over-drinks, nor over-sleeps, he who maintains a standard of simple, healthy diet in moderation, who offsets mental work with physical recreation, who is as honest with his own body as he is with his own business. When success comes to such a one his physical and mental condition is such that he can enjoy in peace of mind and contentment of body the fruits of his labors.

Q. Can typhoid be carried by milk?
A. Yes. In 1907 a case of typhoid fever occurred in a mountain house near Palo Alto, Cal. The wastes from the patient were thrown into a stream on which a dairy was located some distance below. The milk cans of the dairy were washed in the stream and a typhoid epidemic of 236 cases developed among the people who were supplied with this milk. In the spring of 1908 one milkman in Boston who was suffering with typhoid caused an epidemic of over 100 cases. In New York city a number of extensive outbreaks of typhoid fever were traced to infected milk. This was before the enforcement of pasteurization of the milk supply.

Q. Is it harmful to drink while eating?

A. A glass or two of water taken at meal time in small sips moistens the food and helps to mix the saliva with it, thus causing the starch to be more quickly digested. Water taken in larger amounts hinders digestion, especially if the food is washed down without being properly chewed. The water should not be too cold, because cold drinks chill the stomach and hinder digestion. Coffee and tea hinder the work of the saliva, and these drinks should be used sparingly by every one and should be avoided entirely by those who have trouble in digesting starchy foods.

PRICE OF COAL IS BOOSTED AGAIN

Lowell coal dealers advanced the price of all grades of coal 25 cents a ton last Monday, making the second boost within a month. The other advance was made in September, when the price was boosted 20 cents a ton. The reason for the increase is "increased expenses."

Rain falls sometimes in the Sahara Desert, and scientists have discovered underground streams that could be made available for water.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards' produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c.

PLAN HOME WELCOME FOR THEIR HEROES

A big banquet to be held in the auditorium of the Pawtucket grammar school and the erection of a suitable memorial are two of the principal features planned by residents of Pawtucket in the big welcome home celebration they are to give their world war heroes the latter part of next month.

A well attended and enthusiastic meeting to further plans for the affair was held last evening in the chapel of the Pawtucket Congregational church. The meeting directed its efforts mainly to plans for the raising of $750 to meet the expenses of the banquet and another sum for the erection of a monument. The committee in charge of the banquet includes: Chairman, Andrew Molloy, Charles Sheridan, John Blessington, Patrick O'Hearn, Eljah Axon, Mrs. Edward Cunningham, Mrs. Harry D. Graves, Mrs. Harriet Powers, Mrs. Thomas Chadwick and Mrs. M. H. Reidy.

The officers who were temporarily elected at the previous meeting were chosen permanently last evening and are as follows: Cornelius P. Cronin, chairman; Rev. A. G. Lyon, secretary; and William Rigby, treasurer. Present on the platform with the officers was Rev. Patrick J. Hally, pastor of St. Columba's church. It was announced that a subscription from the Pawtucketville firemen for the banquet fund had been received.

Among the affairs planned by the committee to help defray the expenses of the banquet and memorial are a football game to be played next Sunday, a tag day, Nov. 8, dances, musical concerts, whist parties and a souvenir booklet.

The following chairmen were ap-

SALISBURY GREAT CHARACTER MAN

When "The Eyes of the World," the pictorial translation of Harold Bell Wright's famous story of love and adventure, comes to this city next week, Nov. 3, patrons of the Owl Theatre, where this cinema masterpiece will be shown, will have an opportunity of seeing one of the most uniformly excellent casts ever assembled in a single production. From Monroe Salisbury and Jane Novak, who have the leading parts, down to the last important member of the cast, every player has been carefully chosen with an eye to his fitness for his role, and drilled to make the utmost of his smallest opportunity. The result is as faultless as the finished product of a machine whose every cog is in perfect working order.

In the leading male role of Conrad La Grange, Monroe Salisbury does perhaps the best acting of his long career as a stage and screen favorite. A study of his interpretation reveals such a wealth of artistry and fine acting that one finds one's self becoming more and more interested in the past history of a man who has mastered the technique of his profession.

Monroe Salisbury was born in New York city—how long ago he will not say, believing it wiser to let the public wonder a little about his age than to tell them outright. His early youth was devoted to the study of art and music, in both of which branches he is gifted and proficient. His stage debut was made in 1915 in repertoire with Richard Mansfield, and during the intervening years between this event and the time when he deserted the legitimate stage for motion pictures he supported such luminaries of the theatrical firmament as Mrs. Fiske, John Drew, Kathryn Klidder, Nance O'Neill and many others. He followed William Farnum in "The Prince of India," under Charles Frohman, and was also seen in Klaw and Erlanger productions, and in stock at the famous old Castle Square Theatre, Boston.

His screen career began in 1913, since which time he has been affiliated with the Lasky, Fine Arts, Clune Mutual, Fox, Moresco and Bluebird companies, both as leading man for feminine screen stars and featured performer of the productions. "The Goose Girl," "Rose of the Rancho," "The Man From Home," "Ramona," "The Devil's Assistant," "Anthony the Absolute," "The Savage," "The Silent Lie," and "The Eyes of the World," are among the best known photoplays of a long list to his credit. His more recent productions are "The Sundown Trail," "The Sleeping Lion" and "The Man in the Moonlight," three photo-

for Pale and Weak Women.
Give a mother of large family the strength she so sorely needed.

MRS. GEO. GIRARD

I was suffering from general weakness, sore back, sore legs, headaches, fickle appetite and poor digestion. Today I am the mother of several children. The different ailments which made me suffer so much were brought on by the fact that I was compelled to start working early in life, and without any respite whatever. Today I can safely say that it was RED PILLS which gave me the strength I so sorely needed, and made me well. As soon as I feel that my health is impaired even slightly, I take RED PILLS, as I know the great good they have done for me in the past. I recommend them to all my friends, and am happy to let everyone know of their beneficial qualities.

plays in which he stars for the "Universal Co."

Mr. Salisbury is one of the most popular portrayers of leading character parts the screen has, and his remarkable delineation of a difficult and exciting role in "The Eyes of the World" cannot help but add new laurels to his enviable reputation.

LOWELL WAR CAMP COMMUNITY SERVICE

The executive committee of Lowell War Camp Community Service last night approved the request of national headquarters, that it change from a war service agency into a community betterment organization on Nov. 1. The change will not involve any divergence from past policies and the same personnel which has guided the local club through the months of war will minister to its needs as it takes its place as a factor for city welfare.

Otto Hockmeyer was chosen chairman of the executive committee of the new organization and immediately will proceed on the future work. He announced last evening that the club in Dutton street will be open without charge to the public, men and women alike, and that the restaurant will be made larger at once. After Jan. 1, 1920, civilians will be called upon to pay a nominal membership fee, which will entitle them to all of the club accommodations and benefits. The employment bureau, Cornelius Cronin, of fresh water in the world.

LONG ADDRESSES BIG RALLY AT LYNN

LYNN, Oct. 30.—Richard H. Long, the democratic candidate for governor, and his fellow-nominees on the state ticket took a trip through Essex county last night and addressed several thousand voters in Lynn, Salem, Peabody and Marblehead. Everywhere the audiences were large, attentive and enthusiastic.

The candidate for governor was welcomed in Lynn with an impressive outdoor demonstration. When he arrived from Boston in his automobile fireworks were being discharged on the common, bands were playing and a great crowd had gathered in front of the armory. The people followed him when he stepped inside and he held an informal reception before he began to speak.

The meeting was called to order by William E. Sexton, the democratic candidate for state senator, who spoke only long enough to present Congressman Phelan as the presiding officer. Mr. Phelan, who had come from Washington to attend the meeting, received a hearty welcome. He devoted most of the 15 minutes which he occupied to a comparison of what the democrats had accomplished while they had control of the government in Washington with what the republicans had done during the seven months since they had a majority of the house and senate.

He said that during the six years of democratic control more progressive, effective legislation had been put on the statute books than in any similar period in the history of the country. The republicans, he said, had done nothing except to pass a few bridge bills and some other legislation which the democrats had initiated while they had a majority of both branches.

It is time the people here woke up and turned out these republican do-nothings and put at the head of the state government a man of constructive and statesmanlike ability, such as is possessed by our candidate for governor, Richard H. Long.

Long's Speech Applauded

Mr. Long spoke for about 20 minutes in his characteristic, informal way which seems to make such a favorable impression on his auditors. The crowd was not over-demonstrative, but it vigorously applauded his points. He did not mention the Boston police strike, which has been such an important issue in the meetings nearer Boston, but confined his attention chiefly to the social reforms which he promised to bring about if he was elected governor.

Speaking first of his recent experiences in Washington, he said:

"As a candidate for governor endorsed by 137,528 voters last year, I went to Washington to refute the false

To Relieve Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness And Head Noises

Persons suffering from catarrhal deafness, or who are growing hard of hearing and have head noises will be glad to know that this distressing affliction can usually be successfully treated at home by an internal medicine that in many instances has effected complete relief after other treatments have failed. Sufferers who could scarcely hear have had their hearing restored to such an extent that the tick of a watch was plainly audible seven or eight inches away from either ear. Therefore, if you know of someone who is troubled with head noises or catarrhal deafness, put out this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. The prescription can be prepared at home and is made as follows:

Secure from your druggist 1 oz. Parmitin (Double Strength). Take this home and add to it 1/2 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.

Parmitin is used in this way not only to reduce by tonic action the inflammation and swelling in the Eustachian tubes, and thus to equalize the air pressure on the drum, but to correct any excess of secretions in the middle ear, and the results it gives are nearly always quick and effective.

Every person who has catarrh in any form, or distressing rumbling, hissing sounds in their ears should give this recipe a trial.—Adv.

charges published as coming from Congressman William Graham, republican chairman of a congressional committee. Such information published before a hearing for political effect is an insult to intelligent voters regardless of party.

I broke all my engagements and went to Washington to refute the false charges. Chairman Graham was surprised to see me as he hadn't notified me or requested me to appear before his committee. I asked him if he were responsible for the published statement. He refused to reply. The so-called investigation was shown to be a political frame-up when Chairman Graham refused to use evidence available at the war claims board, although informed it would show that the contracts of our companies were taken at prices lower than any other contractor, and that the cancellation costs were less than other contractors, saving millions of dollars to the government.

"Our cancellation settlements cost less than 5 per cent, while others cost from 15 per cent. to 40 per cent. I urged that this information be presented in justice to me. The republican managers of Chairman Graham's committee are holding back the truth until after the election.

"In the testimony I brought out the fact that the statement of witness E. J. Bennett, stating that $184,000 was charge by our companies for facilities was false, and that the amount was $26,000.

"I then asked Chairman Graham if he still believed he received exorbitant profits and he again refused to answer. He also refused to receive as evidence a statement from Colonel Herbert H. Lehman, formerly purchasing agent, and later chief of the leather and textile division, having charge of the greater part of the R. H. Long contracts. This letter from Col. Lehman stated in part as follows:

"I had an excellent opportunity of witnessing your manufacturing ability, patriotic spirit and fairness. Soon after this country went into the war we were confronted with the necessity of producing large quantities of personal and horse equipment. It was necessary to develop new sources of supply. Orders which you received were given after competition because of low prices, or your ability to produce equipment promptly. Your production was large and valuable at a time when the requirements were urgent. We learned to depend on your companies and your willingness to make personal and financial sacrifices to meet the requirements."

Congressman Graham also refused to allow me to present other similar evidence.

Never Such a Campaign as This

"There was never such a campaign as this. Knowing that they will be defeated, the republicans have called on the governors of other states to come here and help. One of these visiting governors, I am told, had such a cold reception on the evening on which he spoke here that he hurried away and back to his own state.

"We have a different idea of the way in which to conduct a campaign. We believe that all the people of Massachusetts are intelligent and know what they want—which is merely a square deal.

There is the 5-cent fare. They say the street railways cannot live on a 5-cent fare, but the railways are living and prospering on a 5-cent fare in New York, Philadelphia, San Francisco, Buffalo, Cleveland, Rochester and even down in our own city of New Bedford. The last year they had a 5-cent fare on the Boston Elevated Railway the profits for the financial interests which controlled the road were $1,000,000. They have a system of bookkeeping which conceals the facts and makes it impossible for the ordinary man to find out what is going on. I know because I have tried in vain to find out. And yet this is not Russia; this is Massachusetts. When I get to be governor I will stop their crooked work and throw the light of day on them.

Must Help Farmers

"We must help our farmers. Everybody needs help except the corrupt interests which are now plundering the commonwealth. They say I am an anarchist and they prate about 'law and order.' No one is more interested than I am in 'law and order.' I live in this state and I expect to stay here. I have a wife and six children. I want them to live in happiness and security.

"The corrupt interests will stop at nothing to win their ends. They don't try to reason. I believe we can build up this state so that there will be good feeling everywhere, so that capital and labor can live amicably together. That is why I have offered myself as a candidate for governor.

"The republicans looked over the situation as it affects the soldiers in this state and decided that they must do something for them and so they placed this $5 poll tax. If that does not raise money enough, and unless you are looking, they will raise that tax next year to $20. The paltry bonus they gave the soldiers does not amount to anything.

"The least we ought to do is to see that every soldier, sailor and marine has a year's pay, $360, from the state treasury. It would take less than a month of the incomes of the rich in this state to provide the money necessary; they have so much money that they don't know what to do with it. We will take it out of the pockets of the rich.

"There is no reason why we should not be now as prosperous as we were during the war. To bring about that

Vermont Resident Regains Her Strength After Treatment With Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

"A severe attack of gastric fever weakened me so that my blood was thin," says Mrs. Eugene Sullivan, of No. 111 Park street, Barre, Vt. "It seemed as though I would never regain my strength. My nerves were unstrung and I was upset at the least little noise. I suffered from neuralgia in my head and had rheumatism in my legs and ankles and nothing that I tried gave me any relief. I ate very little and that little didn't give me any strength.

"I read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and decided to give the remedy a trial. It was a fortunate decision for me, for I felt better in a few weeks. My appetite improved and gradually my strength returned. As my blood became richer the neuralgic pains disappeared and finally I was free from rheumatism. I owe my health to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and can certainly recommend the remedy to others."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., 60 cents per box, six boxes $2.50, postpaid. Write for the free booklet, "Building Up the Blood" containing a special chapter on rheumatism.—Adv.

Found not guilty of manslaughter in connection with the death of five-year-old Gardner Nelson of 40 Cedar street, who was fatally injured by an automobile on Central street Sept. 24, Chas. E. Guthrie of Lowell was discharged in police court today by Judge Ben-right when his case was called on continuance.

The inquest report on the death of the boy, submitted by Judge Pickman, finds that the death of the lad was not caused or contributed to by the criminal negligence of Guthrie or any other person.

Bitro-Phosphate Is Good For Thin Nervous People

A French scientist has discovered an organic phosphate which should be a very effective remedy for weak nerves, sleeplessness, thinness and lack of strength, energy and vigor.

Its substance is described by specialists as identical in composition with certain vital elements naturally found in brain and nerve cells and one which when taken into the human system is quickly converted into healthy living tissue.

This phosphate is already widely known among druggists in this country as Bitro-Phosphate and some physicians claim that through its use strength, energy, vigor and nerve force are frequently increased in two weeks time.

Dr. Frederik Kelle, editor of New York Physicians' "Who's Who," says it should be prescribed by every doctor and used in every hospital in the United States. As there are a great variety of so-called phosphates, those who wish to test this substance should be sure to get the genuine Bitro-Phosphate.—Adv.

OIL INSTEAD OF COAL

"Coming events cast their shadows before" and at the present time, we can see the shadow of a very important event, a change that will mean much to all the people of this land—the substitution of oil for coal as a source of power in manufacturing industries.

The Sun has already noted the possibility of the change and the use of oil in several local factories, but the threat of a general strike of bituminous coal miners, has spread such alarm among the leaders of industry in this country, that they have looked into this question of using oil instead of coal and find that oil has a great many advantages over coal, not only in being much easier to handle, but in actual cost for any given unit of power. The facility with which it can be used is equal to that of gas as compared with coal in the kitchen range or in the domestic boiler.

Oil is more easily handled, more easily stored and more easily applied for the purpose of producing power. The stokers and firemen who shovel coal will be no longer required, as one man can attend to the boilers for which oil is used. There is no time lost in getting fires started, no cinders to be removed, and what is a very important consideration, there is no smoke nuisance, no loss of unconsumed fuel sent out over the city.

It is gratifying to find that several of the big cotton mills are to install oil burners in connection with their boilers so as to abandon the use of coal. Other big factories throughout the country are doing the same so that the prospect is, that the miners who have threatened to tie up all industry and leave the nation to freeze in the lap of winter, may soon find that the industries can run without coal.

Even the railroads and the steamships will change to oil for fuel so that the oil fields of this country and of Mexico are likely to be worked to the limit in the near future.

One of the great advantages which every community such as Lowell would derive from the change, would be the elimination of the smoke nuisance. In recent years many of our largest industries have endeavored to eliminate this nuisance; but so long as they use coal this is practically impossible. It is therefore to be hoped that such offenders from the smoke nuisance as the Lowell Electric Light company and the Eastern Massachusetts Railway company will abandon coal and use oil for fuel. The residents of Lowell would rejoice to get rid of the smoke nuisance by such a change if it can be profitably made.

We are informed that the change from coal to oil does not entail great expense, merely the installation of suitable burners and tank connections. The time is not far distant when a large proportion of our industries will be using oil as fuel and will have completely dispensed with the use of coal. It will be a decided step forward in industrial progress and it will teach the miners the much needed lesson that it is very unwise to threaten the public with disaster of any kind, and that—

GREAT LABOR CONFERENCE

Much interest will centre in the International Labor Conference now convened at Washington, under a provision of the treaty of Versailles.

In view of the spirit of unrest that prevails in many countries of the world at the present time, a great deal will depend upon the policies adopted by this conference on the various industrial questions to be discussed. It is a well known fact that in some of the other countries, the rules and customs of labor organizations are different from those in force in this country. It is to be presumed, therefore, that through the action of this general body some more uniform policies will be adopted, particularly in regard to hours of labor and working conditions. There can be no uniformity in the matter of wages, for the reason that the purchasing power of the dollar, which in reality should be the standard for the regulation of wages, is much less here than in most other countries, except where extraordinary war prices still prevail.

If the proceedings are controlled by conservative men, who will keep radicalism in the background, the conference can accomplish much that will benefit labor throughout the world. It is necessary, however, to recognize the rights of the employer as well as those of the employed and it is equally necessary to recognize the rights of the public to protection against labor strikes that would tie up public utilities such as coal mines, railroads, street railway systems and various others such as the food supply on which any large number of people must depend for existence.

Should the conference yield to socialistic dictation, it will favor the policy of making repeated demands for increased wages and shorter hours of labor, so that a point may soon be reached at which the employer cannot possibly grant the demands made. It would then be the aim of the socialists to take over the business of the employer and run it on their own account. They want to destroy capital and overthrow the wage system so that they would be their own employers and run the industries to suit themselves. That means revolution.

It is needless to say that nothing of this kind will be tolerated under any well organized government, although, under various disguises, it may be carried on for a time even in this country. It can lead only to defeat and disaster in this republic where the rights of property, of labor and capital find equal justice and protection under our constitution.

If this conference holds to the principles of right and justice, its work may have vast possibilities for good in the thirty odd nations represented, but otherwise, its deliberations will redound to the advantage of the Reds and will only help spread the spirit of Bolshevism throughout the world.

BUILDING HOMES

With this era of high rentals and increased cost of building we are being stirred to thought and action for faster and more economical building. The other day at Union, N. J., under the personal supervision of Thomas A. Edison, the inventor, and Charles H. Ingersoll, the dollar watch man, a cement house was poured and completed just 10 days after the first material was delivered on the ground.

While the building industry has made great strides in the last generation, yet it has not made that of other industries where parts are highly standardized and made interchangeable and to economical quantity production.

Buildings are still "made" or "built" rather than manufactured or constructed as in the case of cheap watches or clocks, sewing machines, typewriters or low priced automobiles.

Most of the reforms in building methods have been for the monumental, commercial and industrial structures rather than the average dwelling house that most of us can afford to occupy. And the reason has been a good one. Up until about now there has not been the economic demand. And with the demand there will be the supply of reform. Economic necessity is the mother, father, nurse and school teacher of accomplishment.

That the building industry has made progress is indicated by the fact that all building operations are in the nature of assembling on the ground rather than making or forming all the parts up from the raw material and by hand labor on the ground as in times past.

The steel, stone, terra cotta and wood parts of a structure are now cut or formed in well ordered manufacturing plants, equipped with power machine tools, then numbered, taken to the building ground and put into place. But it still requires from 90 to 120 days to build the average frame dwelling house.

But dwelling houses, such as proposed by Edison and Ingersoll, cannot be economically constructed one or two at a time as is usually the case. According to the standardized plan they must be constructed in large numbers and all at once.

Either a large number of individual owners must agree to build at once, or the project must be in the hands of a real estate promoter who will complete the houses and sell to individual owners, according to demand.

In this way the real estate promoter will perform a function much after the manner of the merchant who assembles a stock of standardized manufactured goods for the convenience of the community.

We never solve a problem until it is presented. And no doubt the problem of high rentals and high building prices will solve itself in more and lower cost home owning, and the tendency of which is indicated by the Edison-Ingersoll accomplishment at Union, N. J., the other day.—N. E. A.

FOR ILLITERATES

The senate committee on labor, which investigated the steel strike has been rather amazed at the information it has obtained relative to existing conditions among the steel workers. It has come to the conclusion that radical steps must be taken for the education of aliens, believing that this course offers the greatest protection against the various forms of radicalism known as socialism, syndicalism and Bolshevism. With 8,000,000 illiterates more than 10 years of age in this country, Senator Kenyon considers the problem of the highest importance. In presenting his bill he said "America will not tolerate anarchy. It does not propose that a few hundred thousand anarchists shall overthrow its government. There is no place in America for the red flag of anarchy."

It is understood that the committee from its investigations reached the conclusion that if the alien steel workers were able to read and write or to speak English, they would have clearer ideas in regard to their own business and could not be so easily imposed upon by the radical element that organized the strike.

If the steel strike does nothing more than stir congress to a proper sense of responsibility for the alarming state of illiteracy that exists among certain elements, it will have accomplished some good. The forces of radicalism can be better overcome through education than by coercion.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

The local school board is committed to the establishment of a junior high school system in connection with a number of the grammar schools. The course to be provided will be merely an extension of the grammar school curriculum, providing for perhaps two additional years' work. To adopt such a system and bring it to perfection at a single stroke is perhaps too much to expect. We would, therefore, suggest that the system be tried in connection with one or two leading grammar schools in order to ascertain just how it will work out in actual practice. In this way the change will offer the least disturbance to the work of the system.

We believe firmly in the plan of the junior high school as peculiarly adapted to the needs of a city such as Lowell; but yet from the very complication of the extensive change required, it is a matter upon which the school board may find it advantageous to move slowly.

THE AUTO LAWS

The police will deserve the praise of the community if they stop auto speeding in our public streets and on the highways passing through our city. The recent accident on the boulevard is but a type of the accidents that have been far too frequent on that popular speedway. Another thing that the police should look after is the glaring headlights used by some machines. Perhaps one-third of the machines met on the highways at night have headlights so dazzling that autoists meeting them are blinded and can aim only at keeping a safe distance from the blaze. They may run into pedestrians, fences or other objects on the side for the reason that it is impossible for them to see what's ahead while facing such an intense blaze. It is up to the police to put a stop to this abuse which is a very dangerous violation of the law.

Premier Asquith of England has come out strongly against putting any more money into what he terms the "Russian bog." England seldom puts out her money anywhere without expecting a rich return. On some of the loans and other expenditures made by Britain in behalf of Russia it appears that there is but slight chance of a return of any kind. That may explain the prime minister's request to stop all expenditures in behalf of Russia.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

In the present state campaign there has been so much seriousness on the part of speakers for both the democratic and republican cause that few touches of comedy have been afforded those who have had occasion to listen to the spellbinders. However, the strain was lightened a little last Saturday evening at the Long rally on city hall steps. Two of the speakers had been introduced and had said what they had to say concerning the issues of the campaign and then disappeared. Finally, the third speaker, Louis R. Sullivan of the governor's council, was introduced and he, too, spoke at length on the issues involved. Then he began urging support for the entire list of candidates on the democratic ticket and came right down to the Lowell candidates when he said, "And don't forget young Slowey and young Brennan for representative." The crowd laughed when the "young Brennan" part of it came out and when Owen himself was told about it, he laughed as heartily as anybody, although Owen is not very old.

Although empty tenements in Lowell are about as scarce just now as the proverbial hen's teeth, local folks are not as badly off as are the citizens of some of the larger cities of the country where the housing shortage exists in much greater degree than here. And in England, it one is to believe the newspapers across the pond, some householders are waiting for tenants to shuffle off this mortal coil in order to get a dwelling place. The following is from an English publication of recent date:

"House hunters driven to desperation by the extraordinary acuteness of the housing difficulty are adopting extreme measures in South Wales and Monmouthshire. Offers from 20 to 25 pounds as 'key money' are quite common, and sums in proportion are being offered for unfurnished rooms. A remarkable case is reported from Newport. A man heard that the tenant of a house was dying; he immediately held up the landlord and persuaded him, after much hesitation, to give him the option on the premises. Meanwhile the applicant hung around the house day by day keeping a watch on the blinds, and when at last they were drawn he dashed around to the landlord, paid a deposit and secured possession."

SEEN AND HEARD

The board of education of Washington, D. C., has been asked to have boy students half sole their own shoes and girl students to take lessons in darning and mending.

At Mt. Carmel, Pa., according to a news item, an electrician engaged in installing a meter in a residence made a mistake and hooked it to a telephone line. Instead of "helloes," the exchange girls are getting "watts."

The feminine club with the largest membership in London has decreed that hereafter young men must promise to help do the dishes and aid in other housework before the girl can say "yes" to his matrimonial arguments.

Law Closes Old Times

Inns in existence since colonial days are among those closed by the war-time prohibition law. One of the most noted is the Gen. Wayne Inn, on the Montgomery pike outside of Philadelphia, which was opened in 1754 by Quaker settlers as the Wayside Inn. "Mad" Anthony Wayne used the inn as his headquarters during the revolutionary war and it has been a polling place for more than 200 years. Turk's Head Inn at West Chester has closed its doors. In revolutionary times it was visited by Gen. Washington, Lafayette, "Mad" Anthony Wayne, Col. Taylor and many other officers of Washington's army.

Expert Witness

A young foreigner was being tried in court and the questioning by the lawyers on the opposite side began.

"Now, Laszky, what you do?"

"Ven!" asked Laszky.

"When you work, of course," said the lawyer.

"Vy, work?"

"I know," said the lawyer, "but what at?"

"At a bench."

"Oh! groaned the lawyer. "Where do you work at a bench?"

"In a factory."

"What kind of a factory?"

"Brick."

"You make bricks?"

"No, de factory is made of bricks."

"Now, Laszky, what do you make in that factory?"

"Thirty dollars a week."

"No, no! What does the factory make?"

"I dunno; a lot uv money, I think."

"Now, listen! What kind of goods does the factory produce?"

"O," said Laszky, "good goods."

"I know, but what kind of 'good goods'?"

"The best."

"The best of what?"

"The best there is."

"Of what?"

"Of dose goods."

When I ask a man for the money he owes me

A silent colloquy subtly flows.

"Well, confound his arrogance."

Does he propose

To conceive it a favor that he bestows

When he borrows my hard-earned coin?

He knows

That I need my money, and yet he goes

Payday past payday and never shows

Any signs of settling.

I'd punch his nose

I suppose, if I could

He never would pay me the money he owes!"

When a man asks me for the money I owe,

An indignation within me glows;

"Well, confound his impudence!"

Doesn't he know

His money is just as certain as though

It was in the bank?

What makes a man so

So suspicious and grasping?

I'd like to throw

The stuff in his face, but maybe—no;

That is a pleasure I'd better forego,

Or perhaps next time when I need some dough,

Likely I won't know where to go!"

BOSTON POLICE STRIKE

Counsel For Striking Policemen Defend Their Action and Blame Governor

Hon. James H. Vahey and Hon. John P. Feeney, counsel for the striking policemen of the Hub, spoke before a gathering of some 200 men in the Street Car men's union hall in Rueland building last evening. The visitors came here to explain conditions in Boston prior to and after the police strike. Both speakers attacked Gov. Calvin Coolidge for not having stepped in between Police Commissioner Curtis and the policemen when he could have done so and prevented the calamities that occurred after the strike was declared.

The meeting was presided over by Thomas Powers, president of the Street Car men's union, and he introduced as the first speaker Mr. Vahey, who in opening said there seem to be some in this state who think they have a monopoly on citizenship and on law and order. "Gov. Coolidge," he continued, "seems to believe that even democrats should vote for him as governor."

"I don't think there has been any necessity for such a lack of understanding as there is relative to the Boston police strike. Mr. Feeney and myself have volunteered to enlighten any community on it and we know more about it than the governor, his supporters or any other two men in the state. I am personally interested in seeing the governor defeated, not because he is Calvin Coolidge, not because he is a republican, but because he has tried to make a door mat of the Boston police, their wives and families."

"The Boston police issue is not a political question and was not made such by the police or their counsel, or their wives, mothers and children and any man who tries to make political capital out of the welfare of men deserves the greatest condemnation by the public. Plain speaking is necessary in order that this case may be understood for it is necessary that all labor men know what is being done in raising a false issue and by using the Boston police as a club to crush labor organizations."

"The Boston police have just as much right to join a labor union as you, street car men have under the laws of Massachusetts. You had a right to form a union and you did and you are using your union to improve your conditions in the way of shortening your hours of labor and increasing your wages.

"The Boston police were receiving 21 cents an hour for the first year and after working five years they received 20 cents an hour. They had to work between 18, 19, 20 and 21 hours a day and only got a day's pay for it. A beginner worked nine hours for $1.50 and sometimes 21 hours for the same pay. The men were compelled to sleep in unsanitary stations; they were compelled to sleep in beds that had been occupied by three or four men without changing the sheets or pillow slips, and it was to better such conditions that they organized. The law states that they had a right to join a union and that law was never repealed. The police commissioner of Boston was violating the law when he tried to coerce or compel the men to leave the union."

"Prior to the forming of their union the Boston policemen had a social club, but that was the biggest 'farce' that ever existed so far as getting results for their welfare was concerned. They tried the club or years and finally decided to have a real organization and they formed the Boston Police men's union and became affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. There was no complaint made at that time and no rule was made by the commissioner until the organization became affiliated with the A.F. of L. At that time, however, the commissioner had the chief of police prefer charges against 10 of the men, who were tried. We, Mr. Feeney and myself, defended them. The men were found guilty by the commissioner and on September 8 they were discharged. There were 7200 men doing the same thing. They were all in the same boat and if it was wrong for 10 men to join the union, the rest of the 1200 men were equally guilty, and all put their cases together and said if 10 are guilty we are all guilty and we are not willing to have these men sacrifice themselves for us for doing precisely what we have done."

"In an endeavor to prevent a general strike in the department Mayor Peters appointed a committee of 24 citizens, two-thirds of whom were republicans, all friends of the governor and police commissioner. This committee in turn appointed a sub committee and Feeney and myself were invited to take part in the deliberations as counsel for the police. We sat with them day and night and all the while we thought the police had just as much right to be affiliated with the A.F. of L. as you had. The main reason against the unionizing of policemen was that in the event of an industrial strike the officers would be apt to favor the strikers."

"We advised the policemen to withdraw from the A.F. of L. We went along with our deliberations and on Sept. 3 it became apparent to the committee members that they would have difficulty with the police commissioner. On Sept. 4 the commissioner announced he would make a finding and it was then learned that he had engaged as his personal counsel, Herbert Parker, counsel for the Standard Oil

Abandon Hope That Miners Are Alive

STREUBENVILLE, Ohio, Oct. 30.—After battling their way to within 150 feet of where 20 miners have been imprisoned since yesterday morning, rescue workers were ordered out of the Y & O mine at Amsterdam, Ohio, at 6 o'clock this morning, by the officials and state mine inspectors, who feared an explosion might occur, according to word received here. Hope has been abandoned that the miners are alive.

Child Labor Legislation

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Pausing in their consideration of the question of child labor legislation, one of the main subjects before the international congress of working women in session here, the delegates heard today an address by Secretary Baker. Later in the day, they were invited to take tea at the residence of Mrs. Josephus Daniels, wife of the secretary of the navy.

Co. and the beef trust, and the commissioner has not yet explained why, when the attorney general of the commonwealth and the attorney for the corporation of Boston were at his service, he retained the services of Parker, a trust man.

"Finally the committee worked out a plan with the assistance of Charles F. Choate, a republican and a friend of the governor, which provided that a committee of three citizens should be appointed to make investigations as to the hours of labor and the wage conditions of the policemen, and this committee to report to the mayor and the commissioner. This committee was to be selected, one by the commissioner, another by the mayor and the third by the policemen. As this plan was being prepared the governor disappeared and he has yet given no explanation as to where he was when the strike broke out. On Sunday night were sent out to look up the commissioner, but the latter could not be found. He was at the home of his counsel at Lancaster. We wanted him to postpone his finding in order to avert a strike. Not being able to find the commissioner, the mayor's committee sought the governor, who was in Greenfield for a short time. The governor did not do anything. He could have stopped the strike by raising his finger, and there was no one who could stop the strike after the commissioner had made his finding public, except the governor."

Mr. Vahey then said if the plan of the mayor's committee had been accepted the strike would have been averted. He stated that when the governor saw that the commissioner would not do anything to prevent the strike, he should have said to the commissioner, "The policemen may be wrong, but the mayor, the chamber of commerce, the mayor's committee and the

Overdoing

How American Women Break Down

Owing to the modern manner of living and the nervous haste of every woman to accomplish just so much each day, they overdo, and as a consequence develop ailments peculiar to their sex, as is indicated by backache, headache, nervousness, the blues, displacements and weakness.

Women who find themselves in this condition should slow down, and depend upon that good old fashioned root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, to restore them to health and strength, for there is no other remedy known that so quickly restores a healthy, normal condition.

Here is the Story of a Most Remarkable Recovery

Minneapolis, Minn.—"I was run down and nervous, could not rest at night, and was more tired in the morning than when I went to bed. I have two children, the youngest three months old, and it was drudgery to care for them as I felt so irritable and generally worn out. From lack of rest and appetite my baby did not get enough nourishment from me, so I started to give him two bottle feedings a day. After taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt like a new woman, full of life and energy. It is a pleasure to care for my children and I am very happy with them and feel fine. I nurse my baby exclusively again, and can't say too much for your medicine."

STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Selling of stocks was resumed at the opening of today's session the further reactions being largely influenced by latest developments in the impending coal strike. Declines of two to eight points marked the early dealings in various leaders, notably steels, equipments, oils and motors, the two last named groups displaying greatest weakness. Shipbuilding and rails were also under pressure. A few stocks rallied sharply within the first half hour, Texas Company gaining five points over yesterday's close at the new high record of 100.

On the quick rebound a number of stocks made full recoveries. The improvement was of brief duration, however, renewed pressure coming many leaders, including U. S. Steel, to fall below their first decline. Texas Company, also other oils and the shipbuilders led another rally, but the undercurrent continued extremely nervous and unsettled throughout the morning. Call money opened at 6 per cent, against yesterday's initial rate of 5 per cent. Although call money held at 6 per cent, further selling of the list on a broader and more active scale occurred at midday. It was then included in the movement, but the undercurrent of the decline was borne by speculative issues comprising the steel, equipment and motor groups.

Stocks were at best prices of the day at the last hour on a vigorous rally, which was featured by U. S. Rubber, Republic Steel and American International. The closing was irregular.

OPPOSES ADOPTION

Massachusetts Civic Alliance
Against Constitution in
Rearranged Form

(Special to The Sun.)
STATE HOUSE, Boston, Oct. 30.—
Opposition by the people at the coming election of the state constitution as rearranged by the convention sitting during the summer of 1918 and a part of the last one, is opposed by the Massachusetts Civic Alliance.

It contends that if the rearranged constitution is accepted there is a possibility of conflict in the interpretation of the law may arise because of a provision that "such rearrangement shall not be deemed or taken to change the meaning or effect of any part of the constitution or its amendments as heretofore existing or operative."

In a statement issued on the subject
the alliance says:
"We believe that the public will be surprised and disappointed to know that if the new constitution is ratified the state election it will not be the final and complete constitution but that we shall have possibly conflicting institutions from the present form of the rearrangement. In view of the possibility of doubt and law-suits of an indefinite future, the alliance submits to the voters the expediency of rejecting the new draft for reasons stated by former Attorney General Parker in the convention when he said:

"I should say that no one would tempt, as we conceive the significance of this new instrument, to compare it with the constitution of the commonwealth without comparing the final text of the constitution and amendments for the rearranged text."

For the purpose of determining the construction the documents must be examined in comparison one with the other. It is not, as we conceive a substantial constitution, it is a rearranged constitution, preserving the phrase all the provisions which are believed to be now operative. If one that are now operative be not found in the new text they are still existing as the cardinal law of the commonwealth."

To determine what is the constitutional law of Massachusetts it would be necessary for the careful investigator whose opinion was sought to what then was the existing constitutional provision, to examine both the rearranged constitution, which is primarily for the convenience of the people, or whoever cares to examine it, determine its provisions; but if its construction it must be read in association with all the existing texts, and of original constitution and amendments."

FINDS STRIKE ILLEGAL

Master's Report in Shoe Shop
Injunction Sustains Employers' Allegations

A finding that the strike of employees of four Lowell shoe shops was illegal is contained in the report on the injunction proceedings instituted by the Federal Shoe Co. and the L. I.
Spaulding Shoe Co. against the officers and members of the Allied Shoe Workers' union and against the union itself as a body, submitted by G. A.
Pevey of Cambridge, who sat as master at the hearings.

The report covers the main question and allied considerations at great length and is important enough to create a precedent for future acts of similar nature arising out of differences between employer and employee.
The strike of the Allied Shoe Workers' union went into effect at both shops factories about July 25 and has continued ever since. The two companies brought bills in equity in the superior court early in August, alleging that the strike was unlawful, for the purpose of causing and enforcing a closed shop. Hearings before the master were held for eight days and he took the case under consideration early in September.

On the question of the allegation of the employers that the strike was unlawful for the enforcement of a closed shop, the master finds as follows:
"I find as a fact that the strike was in fact a place and did in fact take place in all the five shops, except the Berry shop, to wit: In the Filling, H.
H. Hawthorne Co., Foster and L. I.
Spaulding Co., because these four shops refused to recognize the union.
and for that reason or grievance alone.
By recognition of the union by the employers I find on the evidence was decent the employment in the future of union men only—to prevent the plaintiff from employing in its factory any person not a member of the Allied Shoe Workers' union—the maintenance of the future of a closed shop—and to prevent the employers from employing such persons as they see fit."

The master also finds that the plaintiffs in each instance suffered substantial damage by reason of the strike and almost every other case sustains the allegations of the plaintiffs relation to the conduct of the strike,
arrests of violence, intimidation, etc.
The Federal Shoe Co. and the L. I.
Spaulding Co. were represented at the hearings by Edward J. Tierney, while Daniel J. Donahue represented the Allied Shoe Workers' union. Mr. Donahue also had exceptions to the finding and also a petition to the superior court, that the facts be recommitted to the master for the consideration of further evidence, the exclusion of which, he claims, was contrary to the law.

N. E. HAS TWO MONTHS' SUPPLY

Government Ready To Curtail Supply of Coal in Industries 50 Per Cent

New England Has Enough
Coal on Hand To Last For Two Months, Says Lane

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Secretary
Lane announced as the cabinet met that the government would not hesitate to curtail the consumption of coal in industries 50 per cent in order that the coal on hand and that available from unaffected non-union mines might be equitably distributed to essential industries.

The curtailment list used by the war industries board during the war would be taken as the basis for the industries to be supplied, Mr. Lane said.
Plants engaged in manufacturing munitions might be cut off altogether.

The current supply of coal from non-union mines is sufficient to meet domestic demands and supply the needs of railroads and public utilities, Mr.
Lane said. New England has stored away a two months' supply which will take care of all requirements for that period.

The northwest has a fair winter's supply stored at Duluth, Minn., and other nearby storage points, Mr. Lane said.

There are from 150,000,000 to 200,000-000 tons of non-union mined coal yearly and this would be divided as follows: Railroad supply, 100,000,000 and public utilities, 20,000,000.

HON. JOHN T. SPARKS

CANDIDATE FOR SENATOR

With a Platform of Principles
Good Enough for Republicans and Democrats Alike.

To the Voters of the Eighth Senatorial District:—

I am a candidate for Senator and respectfully ask your support election day, November
4th. Judge me as a man.

Judge my fitness and capacity to represent you in comparison with my opponent. Determine your attitude toward me on the broad spirit of Americanism and Ability, and not by the yard stick of party politics.

Today I am the nominee of one of the great political parties. If elected, I become the Public Servant of all the people of the district regardless of party politics. That is my conception of public office.
Is it not broad enough for you to stand upon? I therefore ask you to vote for me, provided you are satisfied with my personal qualifications.

Partisanship is good enough in its place, but it doesn't fit when meritorious and humane legislation is at stake. Many times in legislative chambers has a vote been cast by a public servant against a measure for the general public good, with no better excuse than party politics. "I am a Democrat, and I couldn't see my way clear to vote for it," or, "I am a Republican, and I couldn't see my way clear to vote for it." Just as likely as not the question of party did not enter into the merits of the question at all, but served as an excuse for want of a better one.

The war taught us one great lesson, if nothing else, that party politics make but little difference in time of national emergency.
Uncle Sam did not ask a man's party politics; he just wanted real men, real fighters, and he found them in both parties. Why not then apply that great
